INTRODUCTION

It has been said that we cannot fully understand who we are if we do not know from whence we came. Many of us have a restless urge [some would say we are obsessed] to get back to our beginnings. We have a need to make contact, as best we can with thoses who have gone before and in some way contributed to making us what we are. So, we search and dig into dusty records in the County Court Houses. We write hundred of letters and of course we never forget to include an SASE [self-addressed stamped envelope]. We tramp across fields into unkempt little cemeteries. We strain our eyes trying to read roll after roll of microfilm. And we follow hunches and sometime spend valuable time on wild goose chases. We interview our oldest living relatives who have given us wonderful information, but on other occasions lead in the wrong direction (never intentionally, I'm sure!) There are those glorious moments when the pieces of this gigantic puzzle come together and sometimes we even embarrass ourselves by shouting aloud in the library when we find that necessary bit of information that has eluded us for months - sometimes for years. We listen to others recite their lineages and we try not to bore them by reciprocating with ours. Sometimes the search leads us to some wonderful person who is a "shirt-tail" relative we never knew existed, but we are enriched by the finding.

This particular family story may seem to be a collection of names, dates and places. Whenever possible, an attempt has been made to fill-in, to flesh-out, or to find the bare essentials. This is the story of real people who once lived and experienced joys and sorrows, had hopes and dreams, triumphs and frustrations. Some of these persons were exemplary citizens. Others lived lives which might be called "failures," but never have we been judgmental nor have we attempted to cover up the facts. For these were human beings in every sense of the word, even as are we.

This family story is not "carved in stone." No matter how hard we have tried to get it right, we know there are going to be some errors and many omissions. It is entirely possible that we have made mistakes in our "educated" guesses or our math. We may have made errors in our transcriptions. Whatever, we seek correction and are not averse to revising even our pet theories.

Even though this is a voluminous project, we know it is not finished. Every door that was opened revealed that more lie tantalizingly closed before us. Letters were written but many people did not care enough to answer and many did not know. All this has been a hinderance to a complete compiling of many lines.

Mary (Blair) Immel
Covington, IN

We found the DEVORES, DE VORES, DEVOURS or whichever name you prefer, were among the adventurers who sought religous freedom and away from persecution. We found them buying ground on what became Manhattan Island and having farms in Haarlem and on Long Island. They were industrious people as well as artisans [shoemakers, weavers, tailors, carpenters, etc.]. Many became ministers in various Christian faiths. Others were Justices of Peace, County Clerks and census takers.

They were good reliable citizens who helped to develop their community. They were pioneers and often among the first settlers in the localities where they put down roots. Of course, there were the loners, but mostly, they were clanish. Many served in the Revolutionary War, War of 1812, Civil War [brother vs brother], Spanish-American War, World Wars I & II, in Korea, Vietnam and Desert Storm. Wherever they were needed, they could be found.

*NOTE: You will find the research notes of Mrs. Bost on microfilm, available at any of the LDS (Mormon) Branch Libraries

It was because of the massive materials that Delsa W. Bost had compiled and the transciptions made by Ken and Inez (Parkin) Devore, Ralph D. Dunkle which was put in various research papers by Mary (Blair) Immel that I was able to find clues to "glue" parts together to form definite lineages. There were many sporadic facts that showed that these lines were in need of "outside" help.

With the help of the descendants by putting all their facts together with ours, we able to add a one or more generations their own ancestry.

I hope that descendants will continue working on their own lines, collecting pictures, newpaper articles, family stories, etc. and eventually putting together their own heritage to be shared with their own relatives.

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES

LEGEND

We have put the earliest known DEVORE/DE VORE/DEVOOR/DU FOUR, etc., ancestor of each line, into 20 year categories (1 generation). We have listed them alphabetically, according to their first names, except, there may be some spaces, as we have found the family into which the man belonged. Please note: the female lines have not been ignored. They be included before the ADDENDA. This chart refers only to the male lines.

We feel that after 1850, most of the DEVORES/DE VORES are descendants of the the earlier ones. However, the chart has been extended to 1930, since we have some marriages and the 1900 census, which include men we have not been able to place.

A = 1610 - 1630
B = 1630 - 1650
C = 1650 - 1670
D = 1670 - 1690

NUMBERING SYSTEM

As with your Social Security and Drivers License, each one has a definite number, which indicates to what line you belong, giving you a direct line and position in that family.

Example:
READ the number from right to left:

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: PRE-1610

On pages 4,13,58,69,98,105,143,163,242 and 261, you will find the stories that have been handed down from generation to generation. Similar in nature, but some facts differ. Truth or Fiction? The fact that the French word "fossé" means "ditch" and the French verb "devorer" [pronounced devoray] means to eat, devour, etc., tend to help discredit the stories of how the name evolved.

There is a small, stately chateau in Normandy, near Alençon and 3 kilometers from Rémalard, named Chateau de Voré. The de Voré family left in the 17th century [1600].[1] Several American Devores have interviewed the 2 remaining de Vorés in Paris. They knew very little about their ancestry, because their grandfather was the illegitimate son of a weathy family and was sent away when he was very young. He carried his mother's maiden-name.[1] And so the story goes.....

Researchers believe that the origin lies in early French History. Caeser brought engineers, called fabri, when he conquered Gaul [France]. In France, they were called faure. In the eleventh century, the French Annals have the names du Ford, Durfort and de Faure recorded.[2] The small de is used to denote nobility.

The Huguenot Society tells us that Devore is of Huguenot origin. The Huguenots were the French Protestants who were persecuted and made a mass exodus from France between 1550 and 1780. In Belgium [called Walloons] the name became Du Four; in Holland - DeFoor and Devoor; in England - De Voe, Dever, Deaver and Deavor; in Scotland - Davar/Daver and Germany - Tufford/Dufford and Devore.

In the Annals of the New World we have: DAVAR, DAVER, DE FORD, DEAVER, DEAVERS, DEAVOR, DEAVOUR, DEBEVOICE, DEFAUX, DEFEVERS, DEFOE, DEFOIR, DEFOOIR, DEFOOR, DEFORD, DEFORE, DEFOU, DEFOUE, DEFUR, DEIVOUR, DEVAR, DEVARE, DEVAUX, DEVEAU, DEVEAUX, DEVER, DEVERE, DEVERS, DEVEU, DEVEUE, DEVIER, DEVIR, DEVIRE, DEVOAR, DEVOE, DEVOER, DEVOIR, DEVOIRE, DEVOIRS, DEVOIS, DEVON, DEVONS, DEVOO, DEVOOE, DEVOOER, DEVOOR, DEVOORE, DEVOOSE, DEVOOUR, DEVOR, DEVORE, DEVORER, DEVORES, DEVORS, DEVORSE, DEVOS, DEVOSE, DEVOSS, DEVOU, DEVOUE, DEVOUER, DEVOUR, DEVOURE, DEVOUS, DEVOUW, DEVOUX, DEVOVE, DIFFOER, DUFER, DUFOE, DUFOER, DUFOERT, DUFOIR, DUFOOIR, DUFOOR, DUFOORT, DUFORD, DUFORE, DUFORT, DUFOUR, DUFOURT, DUFOY, DURFORD, DUVOIR, DUVOIX, DUVOORT, as well as Tufford. How it was spelled depended on who was doing the writing in the Church records or Civil records, and the early census takers. The dialects of different areas also has had an effect on the name. Sometimes these names have been used to denote the same family, even the same man. After 1850, we have tried to give information only on DEVORE or DE VORE.

The name can be written: Devore, DeVore or de Vore.

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1610 - 1630

A1. DAVID DU FOUR/DEVOOR

DAVID DU FOUR/DEVOOR was a Walloon/Huguenot (Protestant) from Mons in Hainaut, now modern Belgium. He was undoubtedly, some relative of the young Protestant martyr, David DuFour of Le Cateau, who was hanged on 9 Apr. 1567 for his Protestant sympathies and for his refusal to abandon his Reformed principles.[1]

The younger David DuFour left Hainault because of continuing conflict over religious beliefs. He moved to Sedan, France and then to Amsterdam, where he became a drayman. Left with a young son, by the death of his first wife, Marie Boulen, he soon found another companion in Jeanne Frances, a lady from Queivrain, a little east of Mons, whom he married on 10 July 1657. [In New Amsterdam records her name appears as Jannetie Frans.] That same year, with his new wife and little son, Jean, he sailed for Manhattan Island.[1]

Being an original proprietor at New Ha(a)rlem, David DuFour took on the job of being the common herder for the town in 1662. Soon after, he sold his allotment and took up land at Turtle Bay. In 1677, Governor Andros granted for him and for his son, John, 60 acres of land on the Coale Kill at Turtle Bay, where he lived until his death. He made a will on 14 Sept. 1671, at a time when he was very ill, but it was not proven until 1 May 1699.[1]

Thomas F. DeVoe's

DE VEAUX GENEALOGY

Transcribed by
Betty M. Mann

[NOTE: Since publication of this book in 1885, new information has been found in the New York Genealogical & Biographical Records, Federal Censuses and the IGI microfiche of the Genealogical Library, Salt Lake City, Utah. These facts have been inserted where applicable. B. Mann]

Thomas F. DeVoe, in his DeVeaux Genealogy, tells of many incidents of his family, which could apply to other Huguenot families of the same time. Some are so similar to the ones told in many of the Devore/DeVore families, that transcribing from Mr. DeVoe's book should be a valuable addition.

Frederick, Nicholas, Daniel and Jacob DeVeaux, with their parents [not named], "set out from their home in the province of Annis [said to be near Rochelle] in France, to escape the various inflictions put upon them by the authorities and after much difficulty and suffering, they arrived at Man(n)heim, in Germany.

"Their absence from their home soon became known to the king's murderous troopers, who trailed them over the country, and were so close on these Huguenot refugees, that it was only by the friendship of a woman, that they escaped. After which they dared only to travel at night and hide in the day, and this, with almost starvation among them, as they were not provided for such an emergency.

"The incident of their narrow escape has been handed down through the several generations of those who settled near New York, which appears as follows: 'When the small party left their home they made a rapid flight for several days and nights, and supposed they had a good start unknown to the authorities; then by travelling through the forest as opportunity offered in the daytime, and the fields and bypaths at night, they had great hopes of having eluded any troops which might have been sent after them. On one occasion, however, they had become short of food and were almost starving, but on arriving near a friendly looking farmhouse, early one morning, when one of the party cautiously advanced toward the house, when he saw a woman come out, who became very much alarmed when she discovered him. She, however, knew by his haggard looks, who and what he was and what he wanted. She then motioned him to hide behind one of the small out-buildings in which the swine were kept, when she turned back into the house and in a few minutes brought out a pan of milk and made towards the pen as if to feed her hogs, but conveyed it around to him, at the same time, informing him that there were a number of the king's troopers then lying asleep on the floor of her house, who, no doubt, had been on their trail.

"'The Huguenot took the pan of milk and carried it to the others who were hid, and it was soon emptied by them. In the meantime, the woman had returned with other food, gave it to them, and hurried them off in a new direction, and they safely arrived in the town of Man(n)heim, Germany, where they found some of the earlier fugitives of the family, who had escaped at various periods before....

"'This place, afterwards, was invaded by Louis XIV, when Nicholas and Daniel escaped to England. In 1674, they accompanied Sir Edmund Andros across the ocean when he became the 2nd Governor of New York. Frederick, after his first wife died, obtained the necessary passport from the magistrates of Man(n)heim, and in 1675, he took passage for England and from there to New York, where he settled at Ha(a)rlem....

"'Jacob, probably the youngest brother, remained with his parents in Man(n)heim after his brothers left. His parents preferred to remain there, as they no doubt, had some hope that a change of the Government of France would take place before their deaths, and then they would return again and take possession of their property and home. These hopes were destroyed when the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes in 1685, took place, which was followed by their deaths. Jacob remained in Man(n)heim no longer than to settle up his parents' affairs, and was soon found at Ha(a)rlem, New York.'"[1]

Mr. DeVoe is a descendant of Frederick, and most of his book is about that line. It is in his chapter about "First Settlers In American" that we learn about the family of A1. DAVID DUFOUR/DEVOOR; B1. HANS/HENRY DE VOS and B2. MATHEUS DE VOS. His accounts of C5. NICHOLAS DE VEAUX/DEVAUX /DE VOE, C1. DANIEL DE VEAUX/DEVOOR and C3. JACOB DE VEAUX are well done. He used the name DE VEAUX /DE VAUX/DE VOE throughout his book, with references to Devore and Devoor.

"'When Nicholas de Vaux arrived in Harlem in 1674, he found A1. DAVID DU FOUR already there. The surnames being alike, they concluded that there were kinsmen, which no doubt led to DU FOUR to change the "F" in his name to "V" and afterwards his descendants altered it to DEVOOR/DEVORE and DE VOE.'"[1]

HOWEVER, his account of C1. DANIEL, is lacking some important details: Mainly, DANIEL m(1) as DANIEL DE VEAUX, but he was DANIEL DEVOOR, when he married the second time. This is proven in the New York Genealogical & Biographical Records. Maybe some of the descendants of Frederick, Nicholas and Jacob changed the name to DEVORE/DE VORE. We know that some of the facts about the descendants of Nicholas and Frederick have, through the years, become entangled with the DEVORE/DE VORE people. This happened, because the names became fractured, anglicized, etc. To try and straighten some of these facts, became a monumental task. In checking the various Immigration, Naturalization and other Indexes/Indices, we have found the name Devoor, Devore and Devoe representing the same man.

C3. JACOB DE VEAUX

"JACOB was probably the youngest brother of NICHOLAS, DANIEL AND FREDERICK, and was only a child at the time of the escape from France to Man(n)heim. He remained with his parents at Man(n)heim after his brothers had left and probably became employed with business as soon as he was old enough. His parents preferred to remain there, as they no doubt had some hope that a change of the Government of France would take place before their deaths, and then they would return and again take possession of their property and home. These hopes were destroyed when the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes, in 1685, took place, which was followed by their deaths.

"JACOB remained in Man(n)heim only long enough to settle his parents' affairs, as no doubt, the favorable account of the New World given him by his brothers, led him to quit Man(n)heim and soon after, he was found in Ha(a)rlem, New York. In 1705, he was living in the town of Westchester, a few miles from his brother C2. FREDERICK DE VEAUX's plantations.

"JACOB, however, made a short residence here, as he found the climate too cold, as did other Refugees who had settled in the neighborhood; so they concluded to go South, where great encouragement and kind treatment was promised to all French Refugees by the Governor of South Carolina. He (JACOB) had previously married Caroline Hunt in the town of Westchester and supposed to have at least one child, when he left that part of the county for the South, about the year 1708. Having considerable means, he was able to select a large and fine tract of land in the Beaufort District of South Carolina, when he became hightly esteemed, holding positions of prominence both in the the province and Church."[1]

[Mr. DeVoe mentions only 2 sons who eventually returned to the New York/New Jersey area. There were DeVeaux in South Carolina in 1900. B. Mann]

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1650 - 1670

C5. NICHOLAS DE VEAUX/DE VAUX/DE VOE

NICHOLAS DE VEAUX, his wife, Marie, their oldest child, Abraham, and C1. DANIEL DE VEAUX/DE VOE/ DEVOOR, his younger brother, "came in the company with several other French refugee families, many of whom had, at an earlier period, fled to Manheim, Germany. When this place [Manheim] was invaded by Louis XIV, the family of NICHOLAS and others escaped to England. In 1674, they accompanied Sir Edmund Andros, the second Governor of New York, across the ocean.

"In 1675, NICHOLAS was found in the 'Night Watch', in Ha(a)rlem, having been called upon by the Governor to assist in protecting the inhabitants against the attack from Indians. Two years after, he was again enrolled by the Governor to assist in cutting 5,000 trees to erect a 'Palisade Wall', on the line of the present 'Wall Street' (New York), to guard against an expected attack of the Indians. This fact gave this prominent business street its name.

"NICHOLAS had previously obtained some land at Ha(a)rlem, as he was taxed for property there in 1677. He remained here but for a few years, when he removed to New Jersey, where he and his wife joined the church at Bergen in 1679. It appeared afterwards, that several of his wife's relatives had moved to Hackensack, which induced him to change his residence to that place. Here they erected 'The French Church,' near where still remaines 'The Old French Burying-ground,' in which he and his first wife were buried.

" When NICHOLAS arrived in Ha(a)rlem, he found that A1. DAVID DU FOUR/DEVOOR, was already there. The surnames of each being so much alike, they probably came to the conclusion that they were kinsmen. This no doubt led to DAVID DU FOUR changing the letter 'F' in his name to 'V', and afterwards his generations altered it to DeVoor /DeVore and De Voe."[1] [note: NICHOLAS' descendants used DeVaux and DeVoe]

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1710 - 1750

F7. JAMES DEVOOR/DEVORE

"F7. JAMES DEVOOR/DEVOIR/DEVORE settled on the north side of the Monongahela River (opposite the present site of Monongahela, PA) about 1770. The DAR record of his son Samuel, indicates that they were living in France in 1751. James died before he could apply for a Virginia certificate. On the south side of the river, Joseph Parkison had settled in 1770, according to his certificate.

"James ran a ferry until his death in 1779, when Joseph Parkison took over. In the records of Westmoreland County in 1773 and West Augusta County, it was 'Devore's ferry'. In 1782, it was 'Devore and Parkison Ferry', but in 1790, 'Parkison's ferry'. This was an important meeting place during the Whiskey Insurrection.

"Where James lived, was part of Cumberland County, PA until 1771; of Rostraver Township, Westmoreland (formerly Bedford) County, PA; this became Elizabeth Township, Allegheny County in 1788. It is now part of Forward Township, Allegheny County, PA. In 1773, James was on the Rostraver tax list. In 1783, his son, Moses, was taxed in Rostraver Township, for the land.

"The earliest record is a deed by his son, Andrew Devore, dated 20 Apr. 1771. Andrew was 'of Cumberland County'; he did not know that Bedford County has been formed 6 weeks earlier. The land he sold was on the north side of the river and adjoining F7. James Devore and Paul Froman. Froman operated a mill a few miles down the river on the opposite side of the mouth of Mingo Creek. For a few months in 1777, Samuel, another son of F7. JAMES, owned the land.

"Andrew moved southwest across the river and had Virginia certificates on Peters Creek, 1773, and Mingo Creek, 1775. Also on Mingo Creek were his other brothers: Henry, 1771 and John, with a Pennylvania warrant dated 1786. The survey was called 'Dantzig'. The earliest record of John is in 1776'."[1]

"Andrew Devore, was a native of France and died about 1839, at the extreme age of 97 years. He was a General in the French Army, and was a soldier and officer in the Revolutionary War. Several of his sons were in the War of 1812. Andrew was known as 'Old General Devore'. He is remembered as a tall powerful man and had a sword which used to hang by his bed. When Pennsylvania was first settled, he and a brother took up the whole township (Mingo Township, Washington County), but were not allowed to take out patents on more than half the amount."[2]

"Among the Hessian soldiers captured at Trenton by Washington's Army, was boy named Andrew Devore. He refused to avail himself of the exchange of prisoners, and with a number of others, enlisted in the American Army. In the summer of 1782, he came to Nottingham Township, where he settled on a farm, named in the Pennsylvania Patent, as 'Up and Down'. He received his patent about 1784. A portion of the original tract was later owned by his grandson, James Devore. In 1792, he erected a distillery on Mingo Creek and operated it continously until 1794, when it was seized by the Government for non-payment of the excise (tax)."[3]

"James Devore 'of Yohogania County, Virginia, a long time sick', wrote his will on 14 November 1778. It was probated in March 1779, Washington County, Pennsylvania."[4] The inventory of his estate was filed on 3 June 1779. It totaled 2129 pounds Sterling, of which 800 pounds Sterling was for a negro wench and child.

"The witnesses to the will were his neighbors: Tobias Decker, Nicholas DePue and Daniel DePue, Jr. The executor was James' son, John. Named in the will were: wife, Elizabeth and 'seven eldest children' and five under age, listed apparently in order of age. James may have been married twice. Of the first seven,[5] only the birth of Andrew and Samuel are known. This gives (approx.): Jacob - 1739; Andrew - 1741; Henry - 1743; John - 1745; Sarah[5] - 1747; Rachel[5] - 1749; and Samuel - 1751. This would indicate that James was born about 1710 and married first, about 1738. The five minor children are likely dated:[1] David - 1758; Moses - 1760; Catharine - 1762; Francis(es) - 1764; and James, Jr. - 1766. David and Moses were willed the ferry. Moses served in the Westmoreland County Militia during the Revolution."[1] John served as a private from Pennsylvania during the War, according to the DAR records, which give his birth date as 'ca 1752' (see estimated date) and death date - 1803.

"There is no further record of Jacob, James, Jr, Francis(es), Sarah or Rachel. Samuel is listed in court records of 1777-1779. He married in 1778, Charity Johnson (b. 1775 - d. 1837). The had a son, John, b. 1770 and died in 1863 (DAR records). Samuel died in Fayette Co., KY in 1826. David died in Washington County, PA in 1789, with his brother, Moses, as administrator of his estate.

"In 1788, Moses warranted his father's land (where the ferry was located), 204 acres on the north side of the Monongahela River (now Forward Township, Allegheny County, PA). Moses Devore and Benjamin Parkison were administrators for the estate of John Devore of Buffalo Township, Washington County, PA - 1803

"Andrew Devore died in Nottingham Township, Washington County, PA on 17 August 1835, at the age of 94 years. His will was probated 24 Aug. 1835.[5] The children listed: James, Adam, William, Mary Gamble, Henry and Elizabeth Leech. Beers' History of Washington County, Pennsylvania, adds: Samuel and Andrew (dy)."[1] Beers' Portrait and Biographical Record of Marion and Hardin Counties, Ohio, also lists: Joshua, who died in 1805, leaving a widow and 4 children.[2]

"The last records of Henry Devore is in 1830. In 1825, he gave land to his sons, Jacob and Arthur, and to the wife and children of Andrew. John settled in Buffalo Township from Nottingham Township in 1790."[1]

[NOTE: Some of the descendants of F7. JAMES DEVORE, believe that his parents were C14.HENRIK DEVOOR/HENRY DEVORE and Catharine __ (see p. 17). Other descendants and researchers feel that he could be the same man as C18. JACOBUS DEVOOR. (see p. 20,21)]

"Moses Devore applied for a warrant to survey on 7 Jan. 1788, with the date of improvement given as Mar. 1771 and probably settled in 1770. The tract of 204 acres was surveyed 9 April 1788, with patent issued to Moses Devore 27 Feb. 1830. It was bounded by the Monongahela River, John Imlay, Andrew Pearce (recreation) and Joseph Beckett.

"This tract of land included the famous Half Acre, opposite Monongahela City. In 1775, the Devores started a ferry between their house and the mouth of Pigeon Creek, which was subsequently conducted by James Devore and Joseph Parkison. In 1782, the landing of the ferry on the left side of the river was established at a point thirty rods below the mouth of the Pigeon Creek, and that locality was known for many years as 'Parkison's Ferry'. The opposite locality, now called Carrolton, was known for some years as 'Devore's Ferry' and is so mentioned in an advertisement printed in the "Pittsburgh Gazette" in 1792. [Joseph Parkison owned the lands on the left bank of the river; and thus, while the ferry was was one and the same at its terminal points of landings, it took the names of the respective owners of the lands.

"When this land was purchased from the Indians by the Penn family in 1768, it lay in Cumberland County. Westmoreland County was created in 1773 and it fell into that County. Allegheny County was erected in 1788 and became part of Elizabeth Township of said County. Forward Township was created in 1869.

"Moses appeared on the 1790 census and tax lists for 1783, 1791, 1794, 1798, and 1827. He voted in an election in 1820.

"On 28 Nov. 1822, Moses Devore purchased 152 acres from Samuel Devore and Mary, his wife [sic Martha?]. Land which had been patented to Edward Taylor 11 June 1787, containing 325 acresa and at the time of his death, Taylor was seized of 152 acres and by his last will and testament, dated 10 Feb. 1802 [not recorded in Allegheny County, PA], directed Moses Devore and Thomas Taylor, his executors, to make public sale. Samuel Devore became the legal purchaser and on 18 Sept. 1822, Moses Devore and Thomas Taylor granted 152 acres [bounded by John Forsyth, Thos Warren, Adam McConnel, John Watt, Zacheus Wilson. Wit: Massey Peebles and John Marshall, with Garret Wall, the Justice of Peace.] to Samuel Devore. [Recorded 24 May 1826, Allegheny County, PA]

"On 12 Apr. 1826, Moses Devore and Mary, his wife, sold the above land to Henry Stoner of Elizabeth Twp. Wit: John Porter and Abner Butler, with Garret Wall, the Justice of Peace. [Recorded 24 May 1826, Allegheny Co., PA]

"The accounts of Sam'l Devore and Isaac Wilson, executors of Moses Devour, late of Elizabeth Twp., was dated 5 Mar. 1833 and recorded 6 Oct. 1836."[47]

F9. MOSES DEVORE

F9. MOSES DEVORE was researched and written by William O. Riggs of Florisaant, MO, in 1985:

"Many genealogies have been written about the various Devore Families that came to the New World in the pre-Revolution era and most claim to be of French origin, even French Huguenots. I suppose that I could start a tradition to the effect that our branch of Devores fled to England during the reign of William and Mary, who not only provided assistance in immigrating to the 'Colonies', as well. Or I might insist that our branch of Devores werr part of the Norman Invasion of 1066. But I won't!

"Actually, I have been unable to trace the Devores back far enough to learn when they first set foot on America's shore or from whence they came - let alone, why? The bits and pieces of data that I've gleaned from the mountain of material I've scanned, provides a partial picture, like a jigsaw puzzle with many parts missing. Consequently, some of my Devore history is based on collation with historic events and circumstances that happened within the time-frame in which they lived. In one case, I to so far as to disagree with a noted genealogist and historian; something I seldom do except when I feel it is necessary.

"The search for my Devore forefathers began with the biography of my great grandfather, JAMES ELLWOOD in Presidents, Soldiers and Statemen:[1]

> 'Ellwood, James, Co I, 107th OVI, 2nd Brig, 1st Div, 11th AC, b. Harrison Co., O, June 3, 1830 s/o MARK and MARY (DEVORE) ELLWOOD, settled in Tuscarawas Co., OH in 1837, both dec'd...Grandfather, ABRAHAM DEVORE, served seven years in the Revolutionary War also in War of 1812...'

"Locating grandfather ABRAHAM in Penns Twp., Northumberland Co., PA, during the period of the Revolutionary War and continuing through the 1790 census proved to be easy. but then the trail seemed to disappear into thin air, in spite of the vast accumulation of excellent records: County Histories, Probate Court Records, Marriage Records, Church Records of birth and baptisms, Cemetery Burial records and assorted biographies pertaining to the Counties of Northampton, Berks, Northumberland, Union, Snyder and Montour. The results were rather startling:

1. In spite of the fact that ABRAHAM had at least three sons (possibly six), and a few daughters, I have found no record of a Devore marriage to anyone in the community, around Fort Augusta (later, Sunbury, PA)
2. There is only one record of baptism of a Devore child and only one record of a Devore burial. This appears to be the record of DANIEL DEVORE, the son of ABRAHAM, JR, b. 25 Mar. 1781, in what later became Snyder County. DANIEL d. 23 Apr. 1852 and is bur. in the Lutheran Cemetery Penns Creek, Snyder Co., PA
3. Probate Court Records of Wills and Administration show only two cases involving Devores:
   a. JOHN DEVORE, deceased on 21 Oct. 1808, Letter of Administration granted to James McAnulty, James Patterson and John Bryson, surers. Sunbury, PA County Seat (of Northumberland Co.)
   b. DAVID DEVORE, deceased on 9 Jan. 1793. Letter of Administration given to Peter Server, Jacob Server and Christian Wertz, surers for Administration
4. Snyder County Pioneers[2] acknowledges ABRAHAM's service in the Revolutionary War, but found no evidence of land ownership.

"The origins of my early ancestors is somewhat clouded by conflicting records. Early Pennsylvania Lineages[3] tells me that ABRAHAM, the son of MOSES DEVORE was born in 1735, in New Jersey, married Elizabeth Parcels, b. 1738, then migrated westward into the wilderness area that became Northumberland County in 1772. [note: C25(10). ABRAHAM DEUOVE/DEVOVE/DE VOE, b. 1735 - d. 1826 m. 1758, Elizabeth Parcels/Parsel. see p. 37]. He (ABRAHAM DEVORE) served in the Northampton State Militia and as a Ranger on the Frontier. Around 1783, he moved from Northumberland County to Penn's Creek Post Office, in what is now Snyder County. The time and place of his death is unknown, but is believed to have occured around 1800, although only the names of his sons are listed in the 1790 Census of Northumberland Co., PA.

"The Revolutionary Census of New Jersey[4] suggests that ABRAHAM may have left relatives behind in N.J. We find Henry Devore/Devoir living in Morris Twp., Morris Co., NJ [see p. 17, C141. HENRY DEVORE] and Abraham Devoo/Devon/Devor living Barbadoes Twp., Bergen Co., NJ [see note above]

"D.A.R record of Mrs. Chiles McAdams (#156,455) is interesting because it based on the Rev. record of Abraham Devoe (1735-1826), who married Elizabeth Percells (sic) in 1758 [see note above] This Abraham d. in Morrisania, NY--therefore, despite a remarkable similarity of data involving my ABRAHAM with this one, I feel that we should claim no kinship.

"Penn Twp. was settled in 1745 and incorporated in 1758, with the center of authority at Fort Augusta, which was given the mission to quell the Indian raids and massacres that began after Braddock's defeat in 1755. The vast area around Fort Augusta fell under the jurisdiction of Northampton County until Berks County was formed in 1771, and then became part of Northumberland County in 1772. As settlers poured into the area and settled under the protection of the Fort, the surrounding community became much larger and grew into a town of more importance as a trade center than a fort. In 1794, the community was named Sunbury and took the place of the fort as the County Seat of Northumberland County.[5]

"The area around the fort was taken over early by the Germanic community who had the will and the money to start farms, build schools and churches and control the local government. They tolerated the Scotch, Irish and English races and were in turn, held in contempt by those 'outside the pale'. The Devores preferred to live on the fringe of the community where they could hunt, fish, trap, gather pitch, pine tar, roots, bark and berries for medicines, all of which could be barted with the merchants for guns, powder, lead, traps and other necessities. All too often, the business of bartering, like horse-trading, usually result in somebody taking advantage of someone else; and if carried far enough, could result in grudges that would taint relationships for years. I think that the Devores might have felt some bitterness toward their German neighbors, for some reason - otherwise, there should have been some fraternization and marriages among their young people that would have been recorded in the excellent Lutheran Church records. I found none!

"But at least, we have an idea of what conditionswere like when Abe and Elizabeth (?) were raising their family in Pennsylvania during the Revolutionary War.

"The National Archives in Washington, D.C., deny any record of Federal Service for Abraham during the Revolutionary War. The State Archives at Harrisburg, PA, seem to have only a record of service performed as a private in Capt. John Long's Company of Northampton County Militia in 1782.[6] Since these records bear the notation 'township of residence - Mount Bethel', which is located close to New Jersey, I think these records might apply to a cousin of my Abraham.

"The record that seems to be pertinent is contained in Pennsylvania Archives, A3[7] where Abe is listed as a 'Ranger on the Frontier, 1779-1783'. When the War began, Abraham and his brother Nicholas, having been raised in the woods, were ideally suited for the job of scout, or 'Ranger". Abraham seems to have married around 1780 because his first born son was born and baptized in the Lutheran faith, 25 Mar. 1781, near the city known today as Sunbury, PA. Obviously, he was the Abraham that served in John Long's Company of Northampton Militia the following year.

"Children followed one another in rapid succession; so much so, that the Tax List of Penn Twp.,[8] Northumberland Co., for the year 1785 and 1787, we find that Abraham found it necessary to acquire 1 cow - each cow to supply the food requirement of his youngsters, but nothing else was taxable.

"In spite of the five children that were evident by 1790, a baptismal or birth record can be found for only Daniel, his first born. Why? What happen? Was he engaged in a feud with his German neighbors?

"When the first Census of the U.S. was taken in 1790,[9] Abraham and Nicholas are shown as residents of Northumberland Co., PA, each of them is shown as being over 16 years of age. It is highly probable that the father and son would have identical families, especially three boys under 16 years of age. It is also highly probable that the father would have unmarried sons over 16 years of age, that would be or should have been enumerated. There is no evidence that such a situation existed in Abe's household. However, if we insist that such a situation is possible, then we must deny the birth as around 1735 - which would make him [Abraham, Sr] 78 years old when he served in the War of 1812.

"As the area around Sunbury became crowded, the Devore families moved westward along Penns Creek, settling for a time in Penns Creek Post Office in Northumberland County area that became Snyder Co., eventually. The Census Records of 1790 and 1800 appear to have been a haphazard affair, based on strictly voluntary participation. The Devores must have felt the census to be an invasion of their privacy and refused to be enumerated. There is no evidence of Abe's oldest son, Daniel, who lived in Penns Creek most of his life [d. 23 Apr. 1852] and is buried in the Lutheran Cemetery. No census record is shown for David Devore, who died prior to 9 Jan 1793; or John Devore, who was deceased 21 Oct. 1809. [refer to Probate Court Wills and Letters of Administration on p. 98]. Nevertheless, in spite of the lack of records, the Devores seem to have lived and thrived in the area of Penns Creek Post Office before moving west toward the newly opened Northwest Territory.

"The presence of the names, John and David Devore, in Probate Court Records suggest that these were men of substance who had led a full life, accumulated property, and fathered children and heirs. If so, these may be sons of Moses and brothers of of the elder Abraham. On this basis, I have estimated the death of Abraham, the elder, as around 1800 - or a rough median between the death dates for John and David. I will list them as possible son, so as to preclude establishing additional records while keeping them firmly in hand.

"When Abraham, Jr, reached Ohio, he tried to settle on land in Belmont County. The 1810 Tax Duplicate Listings,[10] show that Abraham Devor (sic) paid taxes on 100 acres of land located in Range 5, Twp 9, Section 13 of the SEVEN RANGES. The taxes were assessed in the sum of $1. Under Ohio law, taxes were waived for the first 5 years of occupancy on claimed lain. If Abe conformed to the usual pattern, we can assume that he settled on his land around 1805, claimed 100 acres, raised a cabin and began to improve his property. Unfortunately, his claim may have been faulty, since I found no record of later payments.

"During the summer of 1812, Abraham enlisted on 25 Aug. 1812, in Capt. David Peck's Company of the Regiment of Ohio Militia as a substitute for Henry Bricker. He was called into service 21 Sept. 1812 and served to 28 Feb. 1813, when he was transferred to Capt. Latta's Company prior to his discharge 21 Mar. 1813.[11] There is no record of a pension or application for Bounty Lands.

"The last record of Abraham appears in the 1820 Census of North Twp., Harrison Co., OH.[12] Abe and his wife are shown as being over 45 years of age, with 2 daughters: 16-26 years of age. The elder of these two daughters may have been MARY DEVORE, my gr-gr-grandmother, who married Mark El(l)wood, Sr. circa 1821 in Harrison Co., OH.

"I have no knowlege as to the identity of the younger of the two daughters of Abraham's.

"The Deavor Family provides the following: 'There was an Abraham Devore, b. PA; lived in Harrison Co., OH, and had sons: George, Jacob and John...'[13] This information, combined with Early Ohio Census Records and other data, permits these added details about this interesting family:

"In Salt Lake City, UT, I found 'Register of Enlistments in the U.S. Army, 1798-1914'.[14] In addition to confirmation of Abraham, Jr's 1812 Service Record:

> No. 1033, George Devore, Private, 5th U.S. Infantry, Capt. Alex. K. Thompson's Co., 5'10", dark eyes, dark hair, dark complexion, ae 24, Mason, b. Northumberland Co., PA. Enlisted 18 May 1813 for 5 years at Sunbury, PA. Good Service Record

After his discharge, George headed for Ohio Territory and the 1820 Ohio Census finds him in Akron Twp., Stark Co., OH. He appears to have a new bride - but no children, as yet. By 1830, George has settled on a farm in Rumley Twp., Harrison Co., [OH], not far from his brother. He appears to have 4 sons, but no wife! A young girl (15-20) is present and so is an old woman (50-60). George is shown as 40-50 yr with 2 sons under 5 yr and 2 sons 5-10 yr. His wife in 1820 was shown as 26-45, and would have been 36-55 in 1830. From this we can conclude that George had married an elderly widow who had a daughter by her previous marriage. She is at least 10 years older than George.

"I have no information as to what happened to Abe's son, John Devore, b. 1791. [?see p. 338?]

"There was a John Devore who married Eva Myser 23 Nov. 1809 in Jefferson Co., OH and moved westward into Tuscarawas Co., OH, where he settled in Bucks Twp. Both John and his wife are buried in Evans Creek Cem. and the headstone provide the following:

> John Devore 10 July 1784 - 1 June 1860
> Eva C. " 20 Oct. 1786 - 11 Apr. 1868

Obviously, this man is much too old to be the son of Abraham, Jr and too young to be his brother. I suspect his origins might be traced to the DEVORES of Washington Co., PA, during the time of the Whiskey Rebellion. [note: not part of F7. JAMES DEVOOR/DEVORE, see p. 69 See p. 325 for JOHN DEVORE and wife, Eva C. Myser. B.Mann]

"Jacob Devore, b. ca 1785, appears in the 1820 Census of North Twp., Harrison Co., OH, p. 111. Both he and his wife are 26-45 years, with 1 son under 10 yr and 3 daughters under 10 yrs. Also, there is a lad, 16-18 yr, and a young man, 16-26, who may have been the beau of Abraham's eldest daughter and who was destine to become my gr.great grandfather, Mark El(l)wood, Sr, who was born in England in 1794.

"Due to the paucity of adequate records in Northumberland Co., PA, I have been unable to make a positive identification of James Devore of Harrison Co., OH, but I have established a tentative relationship of a brother to Abraham, Jr. The Records of the Steubenville [OH] Land Office show that James Devore filed claim in 1805 for land located in Range 5, Twp 11, Section 59. This is only a few miles from where Abraham tried to settle about the same time. James and Abraham served in the same military unit during the War of 1812 and were neighbors in Harrison Co., OH, after the War. Comparison of ages expressed in the 1820 and 1830 Census records permits us to establish James' age as between 55-60 yr in 1830 [he was over 45 in 1820]. That would place his age ca 58 yr in 1830 and the year of his birth as ca 1772. In view of his attachment for Abraham, b. ca 1761, I view James as Abe's younger brother. However, I will be the first to admit that this is but a guess - nevertheless, a reasonable one! [note: see F722. JAMES DEVORE, p. 73]

"..I warned the reader in the beginning, that this history is not the clean, bright tapestry that I would prefer. Instead, it is a moth-eaten, thread-bare fabic that provides only the merest glimpse into my DEVORE history. But, it is, I submit, a start. And that is far more than we had when I began." submitted by William O. Riggs II

G3. CORNELIUS DEVOOR/DEVORE

On 1 May 1750, at the Reformed Dutch Chruch at Machackemeck (Deerpark - now Port Jervis), Orange County, NY, David Devoor and Gerretje Hydt, his wife, had their two sons, Johannes and Cornelis baptized. [See pp. 68, F3. DAVID DEVOOR.] We have nothing further on the parents or Johannes.

G3743231. MARY MABEL JOHNSON was accepted for membership in the Daughters of the American Revolution[1] with this statement about CORNELIUS:

"1780-1783, as a private, 5th class Co., Samuel Paxton's 4th Co. 1st Battalion, Bedford Co., (PA) Militia."[2]

H6. ELIJAH DEVORE's pension application #2907,[3] states: "drafted in 1780 from Bedford Co., PA under CAPT. CORNELIUS DEVOUR [sic DEVORE], and stationed at Frankstown, PA..."

"Bedford County - Militia - 10 May 1786, Capt. Cornelius Devore."[4]

"List of Inhabitants of Londonderry Township, Bedford Co., Penn., taken by Cornelius Devore 23 January 1789: Cornelius Devore; Daniel Devore; Jacob Devore; and Luke Devore."[5]

"A list of the inhabitants of Londonderry Township made subject to the Militia Laws of this State, taken by Cornelius Devore, 23 Jan. 1787."[6]

"Census of 1784 [1773-1784] for Cumberland Valley Twp [Londonderry was organized in 1785][7]

Cornelius Devour	127 acres,	7 white, 1 house
Luke Devour		5 white, 1 house
Daniel Devoure		1 white, 1 house
William Devoure		5 white, 1 house

"Warrantees of Land, Bedford County, PA[8] shows the following surveys for Cornelius Devore:

Devoir, Cornelius	120 A	25 Sept. 1784
Devore, Cornelius	100 A	6 Nov. 1788
Devore, Cornelius	100 A	6 Nov. 1788
Devore, Cornelius	150 A	24 Aug. 1792
Devore, Cornelius	50 A	24 Aug. 1792
Devore, Cornelius	150 A	15 Sept. 1815
Devore, Cornelius,Sr	65 A	15 Apr. 1817
Devore, Cornelius,Sr	150 A	17 Aug. 1827"

A WILLIAM DEVORE was in Cumberland Twp., Bedford Co., PA in 1774, 1779, 1783 and 1784.[9]

On 23 Dec. 1789:

"In the name and by the authority of the freemen of this commonwealth of Pennsylvania, The Supreme Executive Council of the said Commonwealth to Cornelius Devoir, Esquire. Reposing Especial Trust and Confidence in your patriotism prudence Integrity and abilities Know that we have assigned you one of the Justices of the County Court of Common Pleas in and for the county of Bedford giving and granting unto you the said Cornelius Devoir full power and authority to Execute and Perform all the several acts and things which any Justice of the said Court by the Constitution and Laws of this Commonwealth lawfully can may or ought to do both in and out of the said Court to have and to hold the said power and authority for seven years from the date hereof you behaving yourself well. Given under the hand of his Excellency Thomas Mifflin, Esquire, President and the seal of the State at Philadelphia this 23 day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine. David Espy, Recorder."[10]

In August, 1968, Mary (Blair) Immel, Laura Allen and Gail Penrose, visted Bedford Co., and saw the house built by Cornelius Devore, Sr, around 1800 on Wills Creek. "This property is now owned by a Mrs. Deal. When approaching the house, it appears to be a modern dwelling made of brick. This house, however, is built on the foundation of Cornelius Devore's house, and has been bricked over the original. In the dining room, it is possible to see the original woodwork of the old Devore house. Outside, in the barnyard, under a load of hay, Mrs. Immel uncovered the original foundation of the gristmill. This mill was later rebuilt and called Cook's Mill."[11]

"The graveyard where Cornelius Devore and his wife, Elizabeth, Consort of Cornelius, are near Wills Creek Methodist Church. They were originally on top of the bluff near the church, but the Wills Creek had undercut the graves and the stones had fallen down the bluff, where they had been recovered, re-cut and removed to a hillside northeast of the Palo Alto Methodist Church of which the Bedford County Devores were members."[11][12]

"Londonderry Township is a very old settlement. The land is fertile and much of it is beautifully situated. The creek bottoms are superior farming lands, and the settlers were attracted to them very early. Cornelius Devore, an early justice of the peace, probably located in the southern part of the township soon after the Revolutionary War. He owned one of the first mills in this part of the County...Cornelius Devore built a mill where Cook's Mills now are. He also had a sawmill and distillery. The mill was of logs. A part of it is still standing, having been converted into the structure known as Cook's Mill...James Mattingly came to Londonderry Twp about 1833, and purchased from Samuel Devore the farm on which J.T. Mattingly now lives...The villages of Londonderry township, excepting the borough of Hyndman, are small and unimportant."[13]

Cornelius Devore, Sr.'s will[14] lists his children as: "my eldest son, John; my second son, Isaac; my third son, Jeremiah; my fourth son, Jacob; my fifth son, Cornelius; my sixth son, Samuel; my eldest daughter, Rach(a)el, late wife of Richard Baker; my daughter, Hannah, late wife of Henry Ball; my daughter, Katy, wife of Michael Baker and my daughter, Charity, wife of Philip Devore or her heirs, excepting her daughter, Katy, wife of the late William Green...; my daughter Catherine, wife of the late William Green..." Also, "I have raised my grandson, James Devore..."

G39. CORNELIUS DEVORE, JR, b. 19 Aug. 1791, Londonderry Twp., Bedford Co., PA - d. 6 Nov. 1861, ae 70y 2m 18d [wd 23 Oct. 1861 - wp 2 Dec. 1861],[64] Londonderry Twp., Bedford Co., PA, bur. in orchard "on the farm now owned by M.G. Shaffer, south of Hyndman, PA"[12] m. ca 1813, Elizabeth Dunlap (b. 4 July 1795, Londonderry Twp., Bedford Co., PA - d. 5 Sept. 1861, ae 66y 1m 1d, Londonderry Twp., Bedford Co., PA, bur. beside her husband in the orchard) d/o Charles Dunlap and Christiana __

"I give devise and bequeath to my fifth son Cornelius a tract of land beginning at the Spanish Oak about twenty-five rods below the sawmill on the west side of Wills Creek, thence north fifty-seven degrees west twenty-four perches to a willow tree, thence north thirty-one degrees east twenty-five perches to a willow tree, thence north seventy-one degrees to the mill dam thence up Wills Creek to a line between my land and the heirs of Richard Baker, Esq. including the said creek thence an easterly course to the foot of Wills mountain, thence southerly course and crossing the said creek to the place of beginning including the saw mill and grist mill and all other buildings and improvements thereon erected."[14]

"CORNELIUS DEVORE, JR built what he called his "Mansion House" in the vicinity of Palo Alto (PA). It is off the Cumberland Road. It is now on the property owned by the Margraff family since 1910. This is the same property on which a small family cemetery in the apple orchard is located. It (the house) is a large red brick house with a green roof. It is of quite ample size. It has a double basement [that is - basement below the basement]. The lower basement is ice cold like a refrigerator and was used for storing perishables [milk, etc]. There are several rooms to the basement above. One of these basement rooms has a fireplace in it, which may have been used for canning. There is a deer park on the property. The house is well over one hundred years old, because CORNELIUS DEVORE, JR, died in 1861."[11]

CORNELIUS, JR was a Justice of the Peace, as was his father.

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1730 - 1750

G9. JAMES DEVOR

In 1794, G9. JAMES DEVOR's will was probated and in Apr. 1802, the will of his wife, Elizabeth, was probated.[1]

G9. JAMES DEVOR's will names his wife, Elizabeth; son, John, is given "a certain piece of land to make 100 acres"; daughter, Jane Sturges(is); son, James is given 20 pounds; daughter, Rebeckah Snodgrass is given 20 pounds; sons, George and William are given "all the land wherein I dwell"; William is also to "receive the legacy left us by our Uncle Francis Moor of the Kingdom of Ireland."[1] Executors: wife, Elizabeth and sons George and William.

Elizabeth (__) Devor's will, dated 1800 and probated Apr. 1802: "Money coming to me from Samuel Brindle in Apr. 1804" She names sons: William and James; daughters: Rebecca Snodgrass and Mary Moore; granddaughter, Jean Devor, daughter of William Devor. Wit: Samuel Moor and John Steel"[1]

Nothing about the earlier years has been found. The above information is from Revolutionary Soldiers of Franklin Co., PA.

The possibility that there is a relationship (brother or cousin) between G9. JAMES DEVOR and G(12). JOSEPH DAVER/DEVOR/DEAVOR is viable, since they both lived in Franklin Co., PA during the same time period. Some of G(12). JOSEPH DAVER's descendants believe that the two were father and son, but the approximate ages and deaths, do not lend validity to this idea. [Still at this point in times, anything is possible. B. Mann]

The continuation of one of the lines was sent by Eleanor (Bray) Prince, Port Republic, MD.

THE OLD MINE ROAD

The area shown on the map is where New York State, New Jersey and Pennsylvania come together at the Delaware River. The OLD MINE ROAD was 104 miles long. It ran from Kingston, NY to Port Jervis, NY, then down the eastern shore of the Delaware River. Forty miles of it went through Sussex Co., NJ to what was known as the Pahaquarry Copper Mines in Warren Co., NJ.

The settlers may have enterd the valley as early as 1641, as the copper mine was discovered in 1646 by the Dutch who settled in the county. This area was known as the Minisink Valley.

It is known that number of early settlers were living in the Valley on Oct. 18, 1701. The names found in the first records include: Westfall, Westbrook, Ryerson, Depui/Depuy, Schoonmaker, Dingman/Dingenman, Cortright and Quick since these people were witnesses to the christening of the Devoor/Devore children, including G3. CORNELIUS and his brother, Johannes, in the Mackhackameck Church at Deerpark, May 1, 1750. The Mackhackameck Church was situated a ½ mile from where the Neversink River meets the Delaware River. The Smithfield Church was build in 1725 on the Pennsylvania side of the Delaware River near Shawnee.[1]

G(12). JOSEPH DAVER/DEAVOR/DEVOR

This is a transcription of A Brief History of the Deavor Family in America, (1896) by Rev. William T.S. Devor with updates from descendants whose ancestors were briefly mentioned and in some cases left out because of the difficulty of research in the late nineteenth century.

There may some relationship with G9. JAMES DEVOR, who also lived in Franklin Co., PA about the same time. [see pp. 139]. Rev. Devor did not mention anything about this family, so we have no clues to how these families might be related. This will be left to future researchers.

Spring Run is located in PATH VALLEY. "PATH VALLEY" is a pleasant spot, bounded on the northwest by the Tuscarora Mountains; on the northeast end for perhaps six miles, it is bounded by the Dividing Mountain, which separates it from AMBERSON'S VALLEY; then a few miles northeast of Fannettsburg, the two valleys unite and become PATH VALLEY. The length of Path Valley is 22 miles, at some places is about 3 miles wide, but at the southeast end it is reduced to about one and half miles. The length of Amberson's Valley is about 8 or 9 miles. The first settlers of Franklin County (then Cumberland) were Scotch-Irish. Some of them were as early as 1748. Many of the descendants remain in the area, but a larger number migrated west and south, and their place was taken by German settlers from the eastern counties."[1]

"The Deavors and Devors of Path Valley are descendants of Joseph Daver [as his name is spelled in his will], a native of Scotland, who settled at Spring Run, where he bought 129 acres of woodland in Path Valley, Fannett Township, Franklin County, Pennsylvania, from William Bingham and Mordacai Lewis. They deeded this land on 21 Oct. 1795, for 1690 pounds sterling, which became known as the 'Devor Homestead'. In 1884, G(12)36. JACOB J. DEVOR patented the land and he held the deed in 1896.

"Joseph Daver's will was written 26 Apr. 1824, by Rev. Amos McGinley and witnessed by James Mc Cartney.

"Joseph Daver had 8 children by his first wife, whose name is not known, but she was either Irish or Scotch. She may have died in America or aboard the ship while they were making the voyage to the new land. Joseph married secondly, Sarah Ellen (Roles) Ragan and had one daughter."[2]

The descendants use Devor, DeVor, Daver, Dayvor, Dever(e), Deavour and Devore.

[Named after General William Tecumseh Sherman. Rev. Dr. Deavor put together A Brief History of the Deavor Family in America and published it in 1896. He wrote lengthy about the people he knew the most about, giving details of their lives, accomplishments, etc. Only a brief summary has been given here. He did include information on the DEVORES in Pennsylvania and Maryland area, which has provided clues for researchers to use. For further reading, the book is in the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C. and The Genealogical Library, Salt Lake City, UT - B. Mann]

G(12)C. MATTHEW DEVOIR/DEVOUR

From Chapter 4, "A Walk Up Martintown Road" by Claude M. Hill, p. 66 [The source is unknown] The Martintown Road was/is on the South Carolina side of the Savannah River, starting at Fort Moore and going past Hampton Terrace, through Campbelltown, past Hardy's Baptist Church (founded in 1762), Kirksey's tavern on to Cambridge in Edgefield Co., SC]:

"In the mid-18th century, the royal government began to look at the influx of immigrants into the Stevens Creek area. A few families had settled in the area as early as 1740. By 1860, there was a steady stream of families coming from Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania, through North Carolina into South Carolina and Georgia. Some others came directly from Europe to Charleston and took up land in the interior, which was being awarded to 'Foreign Protestants.' There were French, Dutch, German, Irish, Scots and other nationalities represented among the newcomers....

"Irishmen, Scots, French and Germans wandered aimlessly up and down the Martintown Road, seeking soil that would support human life. It was the custom to stay in private homes with those who would receive them. They also looked to the Savannah River for substances. Expert fishermen among the wanderers found that shad was coming up the river to spawn could get no farther than the falls opposite Augusta, so here was developed a shad factory.....

"Among early land transaction in the area were: in 1769 - MATTHEW DEVOUR, 200 acre plat..."

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1730 - 1750

G(13). NICHOLAS DEVORE

"Nicholas DeVore was born in France around 1732. He was left by his mother in a corn field furrow called a "Devarro" from which derives the surname DeVore. He landed in Virginia circa [around] 1754 and became employed by the Washington family of Virginia.

"When the revolution began, Nicholas became the general's chief aide-de-camp, and left the services of the new republic as a major general and became a vast land owner in the new region called Ohio....An interesting sidelight to General Nicholas DeVore's historical resumé was the seige at Valley Forge. General Washington and his aide, General DeVore, were inspecting the troops when a French aide under the Marquis de Lafayette, was trying to instruct Washington that the English and German troops across the river were not, at that time, expecting an American attack. However, the Frenchman could not speak a word of English and if were not for the presence of Nicholas, born in France, the message may not have been understood by Washington. The American attack that night, which saved them from sure starvation, might not have been carried out."[1]

[Nicholas was supposed to have accepted the sword of General Cornwallis at the victory at Yorktown, which ended the American Revolutionary War.[1] There is no sword on display at the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C. B. Mann]

"Nicholas Devore was born in Germany on the river Rhine. He was the son of a foundling. The child being found in a furrow when plowing - from which circumstances, the child was call "Devarro", the furrow - hence the name, the English, French and German, from which the word is derived, was corrupted in English and called Devore, meaning the place found. [No such word has been found in either the French or German dictionaries. The French do not acknowledge such a name or spelling of the name. B.Mann] He (Nicholas) was born the same year that General Washington was, and with whom he served in the American Revolution and in the Indian Wars, in all seven years. Upon emigrating from the old world, he settled in Washington Co., Pennsylvania. In 1787, he removed to Kentucky with a large family - his son, David, being at the time thirteen years of age. They embarked on a flatboat at Fort Pitt (now Pittsburgh) and landed, after a tedious voyage, at Limestone (now Maysville), in Mason Co., KY and settled four miles south of that place near Washington, the first county seat of that county. Here they moved into a fort or stockade, called 'Kenton's Station'."[2]

"Nicholas Devore, b. 22 Feb. 1732, France and a descendant of the baby, adopted and named Nicholas from the trench....His 3 grandsons, Nicholas, David and William, came to the American colonies from France. Nicholas came to Kentucky from Washington Co., PA in 1787. He settled at Washington, KY. He had sons, David, born in PA in 1774, Abner, Benjamin and Nicholas II. Nicholas II served in the War of 1812...Nicholas died in Ohio in 1828, ae 96 yr...Nicholas, after the death of his wife, took his children to the 'Shakers' in Pleasant Hill, Kentucky...Nicholas married Sarah Decker, 3 Mar. 1751, Sussex Co., NJ..."[3]

"Nicholas was a brother of Jeremiah Washburn's wife [Rebecca Devore]...he also had brother Jeremiah Devore who lived on the North Fork of Licking River (KY) at Devore's Ferry..."[4] [see pp. 140]

Here are proven facts:

1. Nicholas Devore was a private from Washington Co., PA, Continental Lines, 1777-1783, Joseph Beckett's Co.[5]
2. Nicholas Devose (Devore, Deveaux): private in Van Swearengen's Co., Col. Morgan's Rifle Regiment, Continental Troops, b. in France, 22 Feb., 1732, buried in Devore Cemetery, Brown Co., OH[6]
3. Nicholas was in Ohio Co., VA in 1787 - taxed for himself; 4 horses, mares, colts or mules; and 11 cattle[7]
4. Nicholas was in Mason Co., KY, 1790 - 1800[8][9]; 1810 census:[10] 1m; 1f
5. Nicholas was taxed in Floyd Co., KY on 1 white male 16-21; 1 white male over 21 and 100 acres in 1793[11]
6. Nicholas left a will in Brown Co., OH, dated 29 Apr. 1828, witnessed by John Mann and William Higgins. He names: wife, Sarah; children: Amey, Susanna, Elisabeth, Nancy, David, Nicholas, Abigail, Abner, Benjamin, and Sally. Executors: David Devore and Jonas Mann[12]
7. Nicholas' widow, Sarah died in Brown Co., OH in Oct., 1829.

QUESTIONS that need answers:

1. Descendants of Rebecca (Devore) Washburn (b. NJ - d. ca 1786, KY) believe that her middle name was DECKER. Could the father of Nicholas, David, William, Rebecca and Jeremiah Devore have been the one who married Sarah DECKER?
2. The Sarah that Nicholas married in 1751, is supposed to have been born in 1734, NJ. If she is the mother of all the children, she would have been 51 yrs old when the last child was born?

No marriage has been found in Sussex Co., or any other NJ county has been found for Nicholas and Sarah. Information in the DAR Lineage Book, is in error, as to the date of Nicholas' death and one calls Rebecca his daughter, rather than sister.

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1730 - 1750

G(14). PHILIP DEVORE

There are 2 sources for information about the existence of a PHILIP DEVORE. One source comes from Dr. Cary Anderson who compiled the History of the Katz/Catt Family and the second source can be found on p. 275 of the Biographical and History of Clark, Crawford, Harrison, Floyd, Jefferson, Jennings, Scott and Washington Counties, IN (1889), in the "Sketch" about "HENRY H. DEVORE, son of PHILIP DEVORE of Floyd Co., IN and Hart Co., KY and the grandson of PHILIP DEVORE of PA..."

Because this article is about G(14)13(10). HENRY HARRISON DEVORE, who is the son of G(14)13. PHILIP DEVORE, who is the son of G(14)1. JOHN B. DEVORE of Hart Co., KY, we believe that it should have read "great-grandson of PHILIP DEVORE of Pennsylvania."

From these sources, we can also assume that PHILIP DEVORE married twice.

There is no record of PHILIP DEVORE being in the Rev. War in the Bureau of Archives and History in Harrisburg, PA. No church, probate, census, or civil record has been found to date ...so exactly where PHILIP DEVORE was or why he left Pennsylvania is unknown. Was he related to CORNELIUS DEVORE of Bedford Co., PA or could he possibly be the father of LUKE DEVORE are questions that are yet to be answered. There are many DEVORES in the early Kentucky censuses, on tax records and marriage records exist for DEVORE men and women. Could they also be descendants of PHILIP?

Only the children who are definitely related to PHILIP DEVORE of Pennsylvania are being presented. Other descendants, if any, will be found in the later "Generations" of this manuscript.

#######

Hart Co., KY was organized in 1819 from Hardin, Barren and possibly Green Counties, KY. The families probably never moved from their home, instead the County lines were re-established or drawn. To add to the confusion, the Courthouse of Hart Co., KY burned in the early 1920's, leaving many unanswered questions.

Civil War pensions were paid to several DEVORE men who said on their applications that they were born in Hart Co., KY or were cousins to other Hart County DEVORES.

[There is a Hart County Genealogical Society and many films in Salt Lake City, Utah about Hart Co. for those who want to research this line in more depth.]

G(14). PHILIP DEVORE

G(14). PHILIP DEVORE, b. ca 1730, NJ/PA - d. 1803-1812, Knox Co., IN (possibly Post Vincennes)[1] m(1) ___ (d. before 1785, PA/KY)

??Did PHILIP take his family down the Ohio River OR did the family go over land through Virginia and into Kentucky by the Wilderness Road?? [This was much earlier than G(13), NICHOLAS DEVORE who was in Ohio Co., VA in 1787,[2] and in Mason Co., KY in 1790.[3]] ??PHILIP's first wife may have died on the trip, or after they arrived in Kentucky. Why did PHILIP continued on to Post Vincennes, arriving there around 1785??[4]

PHILIP DEVORCE (sic DEVORE) made an affidavit in 1785 for Abraham F. Snapp.[4] On 1 Aug. 1790, PHILIP DEVORE received 100 acres as a Militia Donation.[4] "PHILIP does not appear in the 1807, Knox Co., IN census."[1]

To Mary Walker,

Dear Mother, I gladly imbrace this opportunity of writing to you to let you know that we are all well at present hoping these few lines may find you all enjoying the same like blessing. I received your letter dated July 1840 have wrote two letters and sent to you Since requesting an answer But received none. I wish to know the cause as you Wrote you Wanted me to Come and se (sic) you This Season. I intend coming out in the Spring if possible. Diane's and John has been in Indiana. They are all Well Thair, (sic) Except John Devor's Wife. I am yet living in Clay County. I have had the bad Luck to have My house burned up and Lost all that I had in it. Times is very hard here mony (sic) is very scarce here and i feare it is the case in your contry. (sic) Look (sic) Courtrights family is all well at present and lives in Clay County yet and still likes Grog and Caty and has five Children. I yet have my family all Together and I am not married. Brother John's John and Betsy Courtrights and her Son-in-law was out here in the fall to se (sic) us. I have nothing more now to write at presant only remocisou [reminces?] your sibling and you ___ful son thl[?] beath [?]

Philip Devore and Family

To: Mary Walker and family

P.S. Give my best respects to John Courtright and Hiram Walker. We Would be very Glad to se (sic) you all if it was so we could. Pork is worth $3 and 3/50 here this fall. Corn is worth 25 per bushel. Wheat none all failed last season. Property of every description is very low Except for coon fur. it hier [higher] than Ever before pletrys (sic) is very low.

Mary Courtright

Nothing more no ecolected [sic] yours,

Respectfully Phillip Devore This letter was written by M.C. Minnis my brothers-in-law"[1]

G(19). WILLIAM DEVORE,[1] b. 1730-1750 White male, over 21, taxed in Hardy Co., VA (now WV) - 1787 on: 2 horses, mares, colts and mules + 2 cattle

Could this be the father of I4. DANIEL DEVORE who was married in Hardy Co., VA on 3 June 1806? [see p. 292]

1. The 1787 Census of Virginia v. 2 p. 818 Schreiner-Yantis and Love

G(20). WILLIAM DEVORE

G(20). WILLIAM DEVORE,[1] b. 1730-1750 White male, over 21, taxed in Hampshire Co., VA (now WV) - 1787 on: 3 horses, mares, colts and mules + 4 cattle

In the Hampshire Co. with WILLIAM, were: JEREMIAH, and 2 JOHN DEVORES.

CONJECTURE: WILLIAM DEVORE could be the father of H8. JEREMIAH DEVORE [see 261]. He could also be the father of H(11). JOHN DEVORE (the older) and grandfather of H(11)1. JOHN DEVORE (the younger) [see p. 286].

WILLIAM could, also, be the brother of G(13). NICHOLAS DEVORE, who also arrived with another brother, DAVID. [See p. 136, 163]

Wm.T.S. Deavor on p. 57-8 in his book, A Brief History of the Deavor Family (1896), "Three brothers came from Germany, one settled in Burlington Co., NJ; one in Washington Co., PA; and one in Pittsburgh, PA [no names were mentioned.]"

G(21). WILLIAM DEVORE,[1] b. 1730-1750. He was in Cumberland Twp, Bedford Co., PA in 1774, 1779, 1783 and 1784.[1] He appears in the census of 1784 [1773-1784] of Cumberland Valley Twp, Bedford Co., PA: 5 white, 1 house.[1]

Could this be C1(11). WILLEM JUDEVOOR/WILLEM DEVOOR/DEVOIR/DEVORE? [see p. 21]

Since H4. DANIEL DEVORE is also in Bedford Co., at the same time--could this possibly be further proof that WILLIAM and DANIEL are father and son?

H3. CORNELIUS DEVORE,[1] b. ca 1756, ae 65-1821 - d. Feb. 1835 [wd 25 Aug. 1821],[2] Newton, Sussex Co., NJ m. __

"Cornelius Devore enlisted at Easton, PA in 1778 and served until the close of Revolution in Capt. Geo. McCulley's Co., Col. Josiah Harmar's PA Regt. He was in the battles of Princeton, Brandywine, Monmouth, Stony Point, Green Springs and at the Seige of Yorktown. He was allowed a pension Aug. 25, 1821, at which time he was a resident of Hardwick, Sussex Co., NJ and was 65 years of age. In 1821, he stated that he had 5 children, but did not give their names nor the name of his wife."[3] He drew a pension until his death in Feb. 1835, at which time, two of his children, Peter and Susan (DeVore) Allen, wife of Amos Allen, applied for a transfer of this pension to them. In their affidavits, they stated that they were the only known living children of Cornelius DeVore. The other daughter, Rachel, was in parts unknown and had not been heard from in more than a year.[3] [One sad and unusual fact for this family: none could write. Cornelius DeVore made an X on his application, and Peter and Susan also made an X]. Also, Cornelius was a Pvt., NJ Troops.[4]

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1750 - 1770

H4. DANIEL DEVORE

The parents of H4. DANIEL DEVORE still elude the descendants and researchers.

The names of family members were not included in the censuses until 1850, so to state and prove definitely the whereabouts of H4. DANIEL DEVORE has caused disagreement. There is agreement about his being an Indian Fighter. There is no record of a DANIEL DEVORE being in the Revolutionary War.

There was a DANIEL DEVORE in Bedford Co., PA from 1784 through 1820 and there seems to be agreement that this was H4. DANIEL DEVORE. [In 1810, there were 2 DANIEL DEVORES in Bedford Co. They could have been the same man, with census taken at different times.]

The census of 1784 [1773-1774], taken by G3. CORNELIUS DEVORE of Cumberland Valley Twp., Bedford Co., PA (see p. 106):

DANIEL DEVOURE - 5 white, 1 house

Warrant #D-169, Bedford Co., PA - 28 Dec. 1792:

DANIEL DEVORE - 50 acres adjoining land of Joseph Wolford on waters of Wills Creek, known as Kelly's Run, in Londonderry Twp. [This property is mentioned on p. 112 in G3. CORNELIUS DEVORE's bequeath to his son, G36. JEREMIAH DEVORE]

The 1790 Heads of Families, Bedford Co., PA:

DANIEL DEVORE: 3m under 16; 1m over 16; 2f

NO DANIEL DEVORE in the 1800 PA census

The 1810 Bedford Co., PA census:

DANIEL DEVORE:
2m to 10; 1m to 16; 1m 45+
1f to 10; 1f to 16; 1f 16-25; 1f 45+

DANIEL DEVORE:
1m 45+; 1f to 16; 1f 45+

The 1820 Bedford Co., PA census:

DANIEL DEVORE: 1m 45+; 1f 45+

Ethel ( ) Metz, Dorothy (Seevers) Ackerman and Barbara (Brown) Dresler have written asking whether H4. DANIEL DEVORE had a sister, LANAH DEVORE who m. John Hains. They also sent possible brothers and sisters of H4. DANIEL DEVORE.

John Hains in his will [wd 29 Apr. 1813 - wp 3 May 1813, Bedford Co., PA] names his wife, LEANOR, who is known as LANAH (DEVORE) HAINS. H44. AARON DEVORE was a witness to this will.[1]

The list of brothers and sisters, that they have sent:

LANAH DEVORE (spelled: Leanor, Lana, Lena), b. ca 8 May 1752
MOSES DEVORE
DANIEL DEVORE
BENJAMIN DEVORE
ELIZA DEVORE
RACHAEL DEVORE
OLODA DEVORE

CONJECTURE (not proven, but might be!)

These names fit nicely into the family of C1(11). WILLIM JUDEVOOR/WILLEM DEVOOR/WILLIAM DEVOIR/DEVORE and Catharine Schoonmaker [see p. 21 for christening dates of their known children.]

REBECCA
DANIEL
ELIA (m)

The names of Moses and Benjamin are not among those listed, but their dates fit in with the other dates.

HELENA (pronounced like the Capitol of Montana, and maybe the "H" is silent): Helene, Ellen, Hel(l)en, Lena, Laney, Elanor, etc. [see p. 15-65 for various examples]

OLODA: could be ALIDA (an error in transcribing)

MOSES: see "H" generation He was in Bedford Co., PA - 1790, 1800, 1810 and 1820. He went to Knox Co., OH; he died in 1846.

BENJAMIN: could be H2. see p. 200. He went to Athens Co., OH by 1820

ELIA: called male in LDS microfiche, could be ELIZA[2]

There is a RACHEL and DANIEL in C1(11). WILLIAM and Catharine (Schoonmaker) DEVOOR/DEVORE family. We may not have all of their children. The ones we have are from the christening records from the New York Genealogical & Biographical Record.

Descendants have not fully agreed with this presentation, but maybe some future researcher or descendant will be able to confirm/verify or reject this theory, and maybe new facts will appear, that have been "hiding" from everyone.

William O. Riggs II mentions a DANIEL DEVORE in his write-up on F(11) MOSES DEVORE. (see p. 99) Rev. Dr. William T.S. Deavor on p. 53-4 of his book, A Brief History of the Deavor Family in America (1896), gives a summation of H4. DANIEL DEVORE's family. Special thanks to Ken and Inez (Parkin) Devore, Jean (Stillwell) Milton, Pamela (DeVore) Oates, Burt Payne and Leland Wilson for the expanded version that is presented here. All are descendants of H4. DANIEL DEVORE.

H6. ELIJAH DEVORE

[NOTE: This line needs lots of help! What is presented here has been put together from a lot of reliable sources and with the help of Erma(Corman) Devore and Rose (Stephens) LaMon, researchers, and Kathern (Devore) Kidwell and Dolores (Campbell) Hoover, descendants]

Application for Pension and Bounty Warrant: National Archives, Washington, D.C. #R2907.
Pension rejected: He did not serve 6 months by order of competent Authority.

Statement made by ELIJAH DEVORE on 26 Aug. 1842, State of Indiana, County of Decatur:
"..83 yrs on Oct. 16, 1841...in service in the Revolution under Capt. Cornelius Devour [G3. CORNELIUS DEVORE, see p. 106]...in Bedford Co., PA in 1778...entered the service in June 1778 as a Volunteer...discharged Dec. 1779 by Lt. William Mc Entire...drafted in 1780 from 1780 from Bedford Co., PA under Capt. CORNELIUS DEVOUR (sic DEVORE) and stationed at Frankstown, PA in Sept. Served 1 month. Born in 1758, in Hunterdon Co., NJ...Lived in Londonderry Twp., Bedford Co., PA...then 1 yr in Ohio...then in Indiana..property includes a set of shoemaker tools, worth $2.00 and a silver watch, worth $7.50." Elijah signed his own name.
A letter in 1851 to the Commissioner of Pensions: "will please permit Mr. Vespasian Ellis to examine the claim for the year 1842." Signed Barbary Devore (her mark)._1 witnesses: William Brown and Elijah Devore, Sr.[1]
[Was Barbary the wife of H6. ELIJAH DEVORE or was she Barbara (Cook) Devore, wife of H626. ELI/ ELIJAH DEVORE? see p. 237]

H6. ELIJAH DEVORE

H6. ELIJAH DEVORE, b. 16 Oct. 1758 [see above], Hunterdon Co., NJ - d. after 1842(?) Decatur/Bartholomew Co., IN m.__
[QUESTION: could ELIJAH have been a brother of H2. BENJAMIN DEVORE of Fayette Co., PA? Names in both families are similar see p. 200]

3 sons, may have been other children:
* H61. HENRY DEVORE
* H62. BENJAMIN DEVORE
* H63. ELIJAH DEVORE, JR

H61. HENRY DEVORE

H61. HENRY DEVORE, d. Marion Co., IN m. Orpha Chase d/o Stephen Chase and Orry __
Henry may be one of the sons, but he has been elusive. He followed some of the DEVORES into Marion Co., IA, where he died. Two of his granddaughters married into the RIDLEN FAMILY.
[The probability that WILLIAM is a son of H6. ELIJAH is why he is includeded as part of this family, leaving the proof to other researchers and descendants.]

1 daughter, probably others:
* H611. REBECCA DEVORE

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1750 - 1770

H7. JACOB DEVORE

The boundary between Pennsylvania and Maryland was constantly changing until two Englishmen did a survey between 1763-67, which established the Mason-Dixon's line. Due to this problem, to pinpoint in which State the H7. JACOB DEVORE FAMILY lived, is difficult. In later years, the children were uncertain about their birthplaces, since no doubt, the family did move back and forth between the 2 States. The Federal census show that the family was in Bedford Co., PA in 1790, 1800 and 1810, but court records lists the family in Allegany Co., MD during this time. Not only were the State lines changing, but, the County lines were also changing, even though the family may have lived on the same land and never moved.

Family tradition says that H7. JACOB DEVORE was born in France and that JACOB and/or his father, as yet unknown and unnamed, came from Alsace-Lorraine, France with Marie Joseph Paul Yves Roch Gilbert de Motier, better known as Marquis de Lafayette, and fought in the American Revolution. [note: Same traditions are found in the F7. JAMES DEVOOR/DEVORE, G(13). NICHOLAS DEVORE and H8. JEREMIAH DEVORE families. Many other Devore/DeVore families seem to recite and claim the same story and the tradition. In France, we have not been able to establish that the name, de Vore/DeVore or Devore ever existed.]

With the help of Erma (Corman) Devore, Albert A. Devore, Jr., Wayne R. Cain, Mary (Blair) Immel and Delsa W. Bost, we have put what we know into this write-up.

Jacob must have died shortly after 1811, because we find that his widow married Peter Gephart/Gebhart.[3] In the Allegany Co., MD Orphan Court records, we find that Mary Gephart apprenticed her sons: William, Joshua and Daniel, to be trained as a potter, blacksmith and cabinet maker.[1]

According to family traditions, there were only 5 sons, but, the 1810 census show that there were 6 sons, therefore, we [Delsa W. Bost and Betty M. Mann] have added CORNELIUS DEVORE, who settled in Marion Co., OH,[2] The names of his children seem to correspond and his birthdate fits. He probably left home after his mother remarried.

H75. JAMES DEVORE, probably left home, also, after his mother remarried and traveled into Bedford Co., PA, joining the Methodist Church and he may have married Elizabeth Ashwahl in that or a surrounding County. He became a Minister of the Gospel in Lancaster, Fairfield Co., OH. He was joined in Lancaster, OH, by his brothers, H79. JOSHUA and H7(10). DANIEL DEVORE. JAMES and JOSHUA took their families and settled in Effingham Co., IL. DANIEL remained in Fairfield Co., OH until after the Civil War, when he moved his family to Effingham Co., IL. His oldest sons, HENRY CLAY DEVORE and JOSHUA PAUL DEVORE, continued west, settling in Sedgwick Co., KS. JAMES, JOSHUA and DANIEL are buried in Effingham Co., IL. Many of the descendants still live in the area.

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1750 - 1770

H8. JEREMIAH DEVORE

The same "orphan" story runs through this line as it does several of the other lines. It has been included in G(13). NICHOLAS DEVORE's line. [see p. 163].

Nicholas, the orphan, is supposed to have married Anne Fleury.[1] Approximate dates have been set from 1732, when G(13). NICHOLAS DEVORE was born in France/Germany.

We do know that sometime between 1732 and 1740, a DEVORE arrived from France with his wife and 3 sons: NICHOLAS, (b. 1732),[2] William [see p. 199], and David, settling in Sussex Co., NJ. [These three names have been handed down in each line. Maybe there were other sons and daughters?]. Lyman C. Draper has a deposition in his "Collection" stating that "JEREMIAH DEVOR(E) (b. 1740, Sussex Co., NJ and REBECCA (DEVORE) WASHBURN (born 1745, Sussex Co., NJ) were brother and sister to NICHOLAS DEVORE, b. 1732, France."[3] [Rebecca's descendants insist that her middle name was DECKER,[4] which leads to another conjecture that it maybe it was their father who married Sarah Decker.]

Of DAVID DEVORE, we have nothing further, to report, but with time, maybe someone will come forth with the needed information.

#######

It is felt that G(19). WILLIAM DEVORE [see p. 199] was the father of H8. JEREMIAH DEVORE, who was born ca 1755, in Sussex Co., NJ. To date, we do not have solid proof, so JEREMIAH's line is being presented here, and is not included with G(20). WILLIAM DEVORE.

JEREMIAH is supposed to have married Nancy Mann in NJ. JEREMIAH is in Hampshire Co., VA, in 1787, along with G(20). WILLIAM DEVARE/DEVORE and a JOHN DEVORE and a JOHN DEVAR (2 different men).[5] [One of these men might also be a son of WILLIAM DEVORE, while the other might be John's son. Not proven!]

Each man was taxed on himself +:
JEREMIAH DEVORE, 2 horses, mares, colts & mules + 1 cow [?son of William?]
WILLIAM DEVARE/DEVORE, 3 horse, mares, colts, & mules + 4 cattle
JOHN DEVORE, 1 horse, mare, colt & mule + 2 cattle [?son of John?]
JOHN DEVAR, 1m 16-21 yr; 3 horses, mare, colts & mules + 13 cattle [?son of William?]

JEREMIAH left Hampshire Co., VA around 1792. We find JEREMIAH on the Bracken Co., KY Tax List in 1799.[6]

To find who were the children of JEREMIAH and Nancy (Mann) DeVore, we have had to resort to several reliable sources:

JEREMIAH, in his will, names his wife, Nancy and 2 sons-in-law: Peter Hartsock and James Sigler.[7]

In The History of Owen Co., IN, Taylor Twp., p. 951: "Henry Devore is the son of Jerry and Nancy (Mann) Devore." In Montgomery Twp., Owen Co., IN: William DeVore, a brother of Hugh (sic Henry), obtained a patent for land in Section 17 in the northern part of the township."

In The Hartsock-Hamm Genealogy: "...Nicholas Devore, brother of Henry.."

Descendants of Henry Devore, Owens Co., IN, lists these 6 children for Jeremiah and Nancy (Mann) Devore: ELIZABETH, NICHOLAS, HENRY, LYDIA, 2 unnamed daughters [one married Peter Hartsock, the other m. __ Abel] and JEREMIAH, JR.

This leaves CHARITY and CHRISTOPHER. CHARITY m. William Wilson in Bracken Co., KY; CHRISTOPHER m. Fanny Wilson in Bracken Co., KY.

CHRISTOPHER may or may not be the son of JEREMIAH DEVORE, but he is the son of Nancy Mann, having been named for her brother, Christopher Mann. JEREMIAH may have adopted him, or CHRISTOPHER just assumed the DEVORE name. In 1802 and 1803, JEREMIAH is taxed for a male over 16 in his household. In 1804, CHRISTOPHER is taxed on himself, as a male over 16 and under 21, with 1 horse[6] [that is the year that he was married].

Until we have definite proof that these two children do NOT belong, we are including them with the rest of JEREMIAH and Nancy (Mann) DEVORE's family.

Bracken Co., KY was organized in 1796 from Mason and Campbell Cos, with Brooksville, as the County Seat.

H85. HENRY DEVORE/DE VORE

"HENRY DEVORE is a native of Bracken County, Kentucky, born August 1, 1795 and is the son of Jerry and Nancy (Mann) Devore, natives of New Jersey and of English descent. Henry was reared as a farmer until he reached the age of sixteen years, when he became a learner to the trade of carpentering and followed the same for nearly thirty years. When about twenty-two years of age, he married Anna, daughter of Rev. Hugh Barnes of Kentucky, to which union succeeded six children of which now four are living. After emigrating to this county [Owen], he lived in Spencer, and there followed his trade for about twelve years, when he purchased land in this [Taylor] township and engaged in farming. He now owns 565 acres, a part of which he entered from the Government, and has a large share of the honor due to those who have developed this section. After the death of his wife in 1863, he was united in marriage to Miranda A. (Teel) Martin of Putnam County [IN], daughter of John Teel, one of the earliest settlers of this [Putnam/Owen] county, who came hither in 1818. Mr. Devore is said to have made the first improvements in this [Owen] county and has had a large share of experience. For many years, his life was one of toil, hardships and privations. He is one of the earliest settlers of the county [Owen]. Politically, he is a staunch Republican."[38]

"Peter was the youngest of the (Samuel) Hartsock family. At one time, his family lived near the present town of Quincy, Taylor Twp., Owen Co., IN. While living there, they had a sad, horrifying experience of two of their children [Nicholas and Betsy] being burned to death. The parents were at a prayer meeting somewhere in the neighborhood. Their house burned while they were away and these two children, being smaller, were in the charge of the older ones and were the only ones who lost their lives. The family moved to Illinois after 1841 and probably settled in the same area as NICHOLAS and Polly (Hartsock) DE VORE. Peter and his wife (never named in article), joined the Little Mount Church in 1830."[11]

[Where was the Peter Hartsock family in 1850? Not in Illinois nor any adjoining State, according to the Census Indexes.]

Peter Hartsock was one of the executors of his father-in-law's will.[7] Peter sued the estate in 1841 for compensation of taking care of JEREMIAH [and his wife, Nancy?]. He settled for $75.

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1750 - 1770

H8. JEREMIAH DEVORE, con't

H8. JEREMIAH DEVORE's line began with assumptions and ends with unanswered questions, which are left to future researchers to answer, if they can.

1. Were there more children in H8(10)4. DANIEL and Martha (__) DE VORE's family? Was this the Martha who was left with the SEARS children? Was the name pronounced "Sayers"?
2. In The History of Quincy, IN: "Clarence DeVore ran a Drug Store in 1917; Clarence A. DeVore was born in IN, no date was given in the 1900 Owen Co., IN census.

   Clarence A. DeVore m(1) 25 Apr. 1896, Putnam Co., IN, Grace B. Reeves (b. Aug. 1879, IN); m(2) 28 Aug. 1913, Putnam Co. IN, Gladys M. Batman (b. 8 Nov. 1874)
3. In Taylor Twp., Owen Co., IN, 1900, there was a JOSEPH P. DE VORE, b. Sept. 1834, IN and his family is listed. To what line or family does he belong?

The parents of these men could have been on the move when the 1850 and 1880 were taken, as nothing has been found to answer these questions. Or they could have been overlooked by the census taker(s).

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1750 - 1770

H9. JOHN DEVORE

With the information sent by Erma (DeVore) Ferguson, there were enough clues to help Sherwood Snyder III and Kathy DeVore connect with this family. Together we have compiled this line from various bits and pieces. A more thorough check on facts and definite proof is needed.

H9. JOHN DEVORE

H9. JOHN DEVORE,[1] b. ca 1760 m. __
Came from Hampshire Co., VA (now W.V.)
Could this be the same person as G(11)E. JOHN DEVORE and the son of G(11)D. JOHN DEVAR/DEVOR(E)? (see p. 142). Both were in Hampshire Co., VA in 1787.[2]
??Is there a connection with G(19). WILLIAM DEVORE (see p. 199) and H8. JEREMIAH DEVORE (see p. 261)?? No proof, except that families moved together - sometimes, father and son; father-in-law and son-in-law; brothers; cousins, even entire neighborhoods.

H(12). LUKE DEVOIR/DEVOUR/DEVORE

This line has been well researched by Delsa W. Bost (Salt Lake City, UT). Additional information from Margaret Scoggins (Poplar Bluff, MO). Many questions are still unanswered and many missing pieces are still to be found. It would be helpful, if the names of LUKE DEVORE's children were known. DAVID DEVORE is the only proven son. The others, JESSE, ELIJAH, ISAAC and JACOB were in the No. Madrid, MO area at the same time and could be other sons. The 1790 census shows that he had 4 sons.

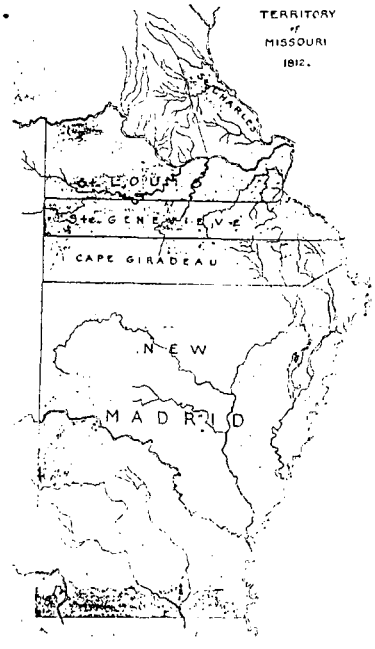
Appl. #S35240 - Invalid - NJ[2]

"Certificate of Pension returned to War Office as dead letter, 22 Nov. 1820 and sent to John Scott at Constantia, Ill.

"Luke Devore, Power of Attorney to James Black of Jefferson Co., of U.S. Northwest of the Ohio River, to received land warrant (Military) due him; Signed "X" Nov. 1800. Witnesses: William Brown and Alexander Brown. Luke Devour/Devoir d. Nov. 2, 1819."[2]

"....Col. Dayton's Reg't; served more than 9 mo: pension admitted. Applicant at Jonesborough, (Pope Co), IL, rec'd 18 Dec. 1819. Luke Devore's statement: '1st in Peter Dickenson's Co. in 1775; then in Jeremiah Benold's in 1779....While descending the Ohio River my boat was shoved against rocks at the Falls of Ohio and my effects together with my discharge and other papers...were lost. Due to misfortune, debility & old age, I am unable to support myself.' He was awarded $8. per month. Letter from a lawyer in 1844: 'Luke Devore didn't receive his pension money.' In 1823, he visited an adjoining State and died while from home, leaving his widow, Elizabeth Devour... she survived him ten years; died 1833, leaving children [not named] at her death and the arrears of pension never having been drawn.



" Will Elijah ___th DEVOUR be entitled to his pension & if not, who will be entitled to it?"[2]

[NOTE: death date given for Luke does not match that in the lawyer's letter][1]

[NOTE: the witnesses for Luke's Power of Attorney to receive land warrant (Military) were named Brown]

In 1790, LUKE DEVORE and family were in Bedford Co., PA: 4m under 16; 1 m over 16; 4 f

7 children in 1790, only 1 proven:

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1750 - 1770

H(14). MOSES DEVORE

This line has been researched by Delsa W. Bost of Salt Lake City, UT. James L. Wolford of Portland, OR and Wilma (__) Bennett of Searcy, AR have contributed their lines. There are still a lot of unanswered questions and missing links.

Descendants of I(23). MOSES DEVORE seem to think that he is part of this line, but until more proof is found, his line is on p. 340. There may be other descendants, however.

I3B. CORNELIUS DEVORE

I3B. CORNELIUS DEVORE In 1830, there was a Cornelius Devore in Howard Twp., Knox Co., OH:
2m 5-10; 1m 10-15; 1m 30-40
1f 0-5; 1f 10-15; 1f 30-40

According to Portrait & Biographical Record of Marion & Hardin Counties, OH (1895), on p. 330, Cornelius' son, JAMES, was born in Knox Co., OH. We have put this family in H7. JACOB DEVORE. This may be in error [see H72. p. 223]. J(15). JAMES DEVORE was in the same twp., same Co., same year--could be THEY were brothers or cousins.

CORNELIUS DEVORE was b. 17 Sept. 1789, PA; JAMES DEVORE was b. 4 Feb. 1794, KY/VA

[Early records do not help. It will up to descendants to finally put these families in the right perspective.]

I4. DANIEL DEVORE

The information on this line has been researched and shared with us by Virginia Ast of Emporia, KS. Stephen Wood shared the WOOD/DEVORE Family Bible with Virginia.

There may be a connection with the J(15). JAMES DEVORE family, but nothing concrete to tie the two lines together. BOTH FAMILIES were in Tazewell Co., IL in the same time period.

I4. DANIEL DEVORE

I4. DANIEL DEVORE,[1] b. 1770-1786 - d. ?Tazewell Co., IL, bur. Bequeath Cem., Tazewell Co., IL?[4] m. 3 June 1806, Hardy Co., VA (now WV), Katharine/Catherine Cohenour (b. Shenandoah Co., VA) d/o Joseph Cohenour[2] and Mary Magdaline __

DANIEL may be the son of G(19). WILLIAM DEVORE, who was taxed in Hardy Co., VA in 1787[3] [see p. 199].

"DANIEL and Katharine (Cohenour) DEVORE were in Muskingum Co., OH, with Katharine's brothers, John and Jacob Cohenour, around 1808. The DANIEL DEVORE family was in Coshocton Co., OH in 1820. Their daughter, REBECKA and their son, WILLIAM were married in Cochocton Co., OH. Did the family spent some time in the Vigo Co., IN, area, where their daughter, BETSY was married? In 1835, the DEVORES came to Tazewell Co., IL with John and Susannah (Shrimplin) Wood [parents of Mary (Wood) Cohenour and Cynthiana (Wood) Bush Devore]."[4] According to Chapman's History of Tazewell County, Illinois, DANIEL and Katharine (Cohenour) DEVORE settled in Spring Lake Twp., Tazewell Co., IL. In 1840, Catherine is in Vermilion Co., IN, probably with ELIZABETH and William SUTTON.

I5. DAVID DEVORE

Mrs. Olive (Grubb) DeVore (dec'd) of Franklin, IN and Frances Bockelman of Lincoln, NE have been doing the research on this line. Since Mrs. De Vore's death, Miss Bockelman has been doing an in-depth research of all possible sources. She even hired a researcher, with a computer to put everything together. He went into everthing from the information about C1. DANIEL DE VEAUX/DEVORE (p. 14), through F7. JAMES DEVOOR/DEVORE (p. 70), plus much of the information that has been put on microfilm at Salt Lake City, UT, by Mrs. Delsa W. Bost, a DEVORE/DE VORE researcher

After sorting everything out, we ended up exactly where we were when we started researching this line, except for a few dates of marriages, deaths, deeds and estates that we didn't have. There were some "new" DEVORE names, that we didn't have.

Mrs. Olive (Grubb) DeVore, in her research, said that DAVID DEVORE was born in Pennsylvania. The 1850 Fayette Co., KY census has Virginia.

DAVID DEVORE may be a son of G(14). PHILIP DEVORE of PA who came to Kentucky. [see p. 189]. More proof is needed, but it is another clue to check out, or maybe a son of H(12). LUKE DEVORE, [see p. 287]

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1770 - 1790

I6. E. DEVORE

This line was difficult to put together, because in the 1850 census, only initials were used. From information put together from censuses, pension applications and from dates and Carroll Co., OH records sent by Sarah Finnicum, researcher of Carrollton, OH and Hazel Franseen, Racine, WI, we have put this line into perspective, with hopes that at least part of this is correct.
Could "E" stands for EVERETT, the name of his great-grandson?

I(14). JESSE DEVORE

The descendants of JESSE DEVORE have done an "in depth" research of his ancestry which appears in John Berry and His Children (1988), Chap. 8. With permission from "The John Berry Association," this line is presented as part of DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES.

There may be a connection to the DEVORES through LUKE DEVORE, who was in No. Madrid Co., MO in the early 1800's. [see p. 287]. JESSE, DAVID and LUKE DEVOR(E) had property on/of Bayou St. Johns, No. Madrid, MO. There is need of further research into this area.

Again, the story that 3 brothers, Jesse, David and Jacob supposedly emigrated to Louisiana from France, has appeared in family "history." Since most family histories are handed down "orally" from one generation to another, error in the time element becomes the "enemy" for researchers.

"Family tradition says that JESSE DEVORE served under General Andrew Jackson in the Battle of Horseshoe Bend, Tallapoosa, Alabama in Mar. 1814 (Creek Indian War)" and subsequently the Battle of New Orleans on 8 Jan. 1815. Since this "was the conclusive engagement of the War of 1812, we can be certain from the record that JESSE DEVORE was there.....JESSE was in the 14th Regiment of Louisiana Militia, hurrying from Villiere's Plantation toward the battlefield of Chalmette, but by the time they arrived, the British had been repelled."[1]

Records have been found to prove that JESSE DEVORE and his first family, lived in New Orleans, LA for a few years. In 1823, the family was found in Chicot Twp., Arkansas Co., AR. Others in the County, were JACOB DEVORE, Ezekial and Joseph Black.[1]

Around 1826, the DEVORES became part of Joseph Vehlein colony. [Vehlein held a "contract with the Mexican government for the location of settlers in the Atascosito District of Texas"][1]. JESSE DEVORE and family arrived in the Municipality of Liberty, TX early in 1828.

JESSE DEVORE received "title to a league and a labor of land from the Mexican government on 7 June 1835, located about 10 miles east of the Trinity River in a large prairie near the present town of Devers. It is here that he raised his family."[1]

Information from Kevin Ladd, Artress (__) Walker, Mrs. James E. Goodloe and Janice(__) Knight who researched the DEVORE LINE for John Berry and His Children has been a help in compiling this line.

And MANY THANKS to "The John Berry Association," for permitting us to use their material.

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1770 - 1790

I(17). JOHN DEVORE

In his book, A Brief History of the Deavor Family in America (1896), Dr. William T.S. Deavor relates the following:

"JOHN DEVORE, born 1777, was an Orderly Sergeant in New Jersey Regiment in the War of 1812. He married a wife in New Jersey, who died in 1807. Eight years later he married in New York and after her death, he married Miss Allfree in Pennsylvania. To his second wife he had 8 children: Nancy; Lydia; John of Pontiac, Mich.; James; A. Hopkins of Port Byron, NY; Jacob of the same place, who has a son, John M.; William of Englishville, Mich; and Samuel of Port Byron, NY. To his third wife, he had 4 children: two died young; Harriet Jane m. Wm G. Harry, d. 1850 leaving a son and daughter; Abraham Allfree, b. 6/29/ 1831, Carroll Twp., Washington Co., PA...."

With this information plus the research done by Barbara (Cherry) Young, Katherine Connolly, Faye (Jones) DeVore, Harold DeVore, and material found in the "James Mills Family," we hope we have compiled a better picture of this line. There is the possibility that J(19). SILAS CHARLES DE VORE might be part of this family. The area where around the New York Counties of Steuben, Yates and Jefferson is the same in both lines. [see "J" generation]

Although, there is disagreement that this line is part of JOHN DEVORE's, because Dr. Wm. T.S. Deavor included it in his book and because coincides with information from "The James Mills Family" (LDS film #F70928108), it is presented here. It will be up to descendants to decide whether it should be in this line.

"ABRAHAM ALLFREE DEVORE [called A.A. in "The James Mills Family"], b. June 19, 1831, in Carroll Twp., Washington Co., PA, 3 miles from the birthplace of the Hon. Jas G. Blaine. He lived in the vicinity of Pittsburgh until 1878, when he moved to Chicago and was married in 1882 to Rachel J. Long of Coal Centre, PA. [Pension application has Lancaster, PA] They have 5 children: Romania E., d. ae 3 mo; Anna Belle m. W.J. Lafferty of Chicago; Emma Wilretta m. W. M. Clarke of Pittsburgh; John Abraham and Ulysses Stanton are both married and with their father conduct one of the largest tailoring establishment in Chicago.
"A.A. Devore was prominent in the late rebellion. In California, PA, Apr. 19, 1861, a volunteer Company was organized of which he was made 1st Lieut. by Gov. Pierpont. It was called 'the McKennan Infantry", in honor of Judge McKennan of the Supreme Court of Western PA. Major Oakes mustered them into 3 yr service at Wheeling, but having tendered their service to Gov. Pierpont, they were credited to PA as voluneers.
"Mr. Devore's service in Co. I, 2nd Regt, under Col. Noss was heroic. He was detailed as a scout to the bridle paths of mountain passes to intercept spies and secret mail in the most hazardous hours of the war, for which West VA gave him a medal, eve though sickness compelled his resignation after 6 months' service. He was self-advocate of our public school system and for years has been a director and stockholder of the S.W. Normal College, California, PA."

I(18). JOHN DE VORE

Here is another line with an "elusive" ancestor. Jerry DeVore of El Paso, TX has been able to put his line together back to this JOHN DE VORE.

There is a possibility that JOHN might be the son of H3. CORNELIUS DEVORE [see p. 205] If this CORNELIUS DEVORE married 3 times, no doubt, the older son(s) left home and went on their own. In other lines, this was a fact. However, we have nothing to say that this is true or false.

JOHN's father could have been H(11). JOHN DEVORE, b. 24 Apr. 1759 and served in the Rev. War [see . 286]. It will have to be left to the descendants to prove or disprove who is JOHN's ancestor.

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1770 - 1790

I(19). JOHN D. DEVORE

The story of 7 brothers coming to America from France is part of the family "History" of this line. To date, nothing has been found to prove or disprove this "story".

Carter Co., KY was formed in 1838 from Greenup and Lawrence Counties. No doubt, the DEVORES never moved, only the county line was changed. [In 1803, Greenup Co., was formed from Mason Co., KY and in 1821, Lawrence Co., was formed from Greenup and Floyd Counties]

JOHN D. DEVORE signed the marriage bond for his son, DAVID in 1828. JOHN DEVORE and DAVID DEVORE were in Greenup Co., KY in 1830.

JOHN DEVORE:

1f 15-20; 1f 50-60

DAVID DEVORE:

This line has been researched and compiled by Everett de Vore, (dec'd) Gladys (DeVore) Ramsey, Virginia (Aberthal) Boyd and Kathy (Roberts) Higgs. Because of the overlapping of information from these descendants, only specific facts about their own lines will be foot-noted. Other information has been found in the census and IGI from Salt Lake City, UT. Contact with the descendants has been lost, making it difficult to confirm any new facts that has been found.

"The DeVore family was living in Ashland, Greenup Co., KY when they decided to move to Kansas. One of the reasons was because there were 3 unmarried sons in the family at this time. They did not believe in slavery and had no desire to fight on the southern side. The other reason was that DAVID DE VORE did not believe in railroad. When one was built right through his rich farm land, it so disgusted him that he moved his family to Kansas in 1859, settling in Jefferson Co., northwest of Topeka.

"When the railroad came to Kansas, it cut his 160 acres in half. DAVID pre-empted land on the east side of the Walnut River which was still in the family in 1919 and never was mortgaged. His "foot-steps were still dogged" by the railroad. The road, which became the Missouri-Pacific, was surveyed a right of way through the rich bottom of the Walnut River in Cowley Co., KS. DAVID died before this happened. This road was never built.

"His sons freighted supplies, until the railroad made it unprofitable, to the forts in Kansas, Colorado, Idaho, Wyoming and Montana, going through Denver, when there was only one shack in the town."[1]

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1770 - 1790

I(23). MOSES DEVORE

This line has been researched and shared by Gwen (Butler) Meyer of Florence, KY. She received the information from Margaret (Lawson) Cartlidge and Anna M. Cartlidge and has done further research on this line.

There may be a connection with MOSES DEVORE of Bedford Co., PA and Knox Co., OH, but, more proof is needed. The 1790 census of Bedford Co., PA has only 1m under 16 yr. In 1800, Bedford Co., PA census: 1m 0-10; 1m 10-16. [see H(14). MOSES DEVORE, p. 288].

There were other DEVORES in PA in 1790 and 1800, of which this MOSES DEVORE could be part of their families. [See F(11). MOSES DEVORE, p. 99]

The descendants feel that this MOSES enlisted in the Mexican War in 1847, at the age of 63 yr. This needs to be checked out more thoroughly. Could this have been MOSES DEVORE, JR?

[NOTE: The information has 11 children with only 8 named. 4 more were found in the 1850 Kentucky census, plus ?MOSES, JR.? B. Mann]

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1770 - 1790

I(25). PHILIP DEVORE

Exactly who was the father of PHILIP DEVORE, remains a mystery. Family "rumor" says that he and CHARITY DEVORE were first cousins, but it may have been just cousins, in the connotation. Many of the DEVORES and Allied lines intermarried.

Delsa W. Bost has felt for a long time, that the parents of PHILIP DEVORE were LUKE DEVORE and Elizabeth Masters. LUKE DEVORE was in Bedford Co., PA in 1790. After that, he went to IL and MO. He died ca 1823, leaving Elizabeth, his wife, and unnamed children. [see p. 287]

This line is also contained in G3. CORNELIUS DEVORE [see p. 116-122]

I(27). TIMOTHY DE VORE

From the book, CHARACTER CERTIFICATES IN THE GENERAL LAND OFFICE OF TEXAS by Gifford White
P. 51. #528. San Augustine, [TX], Sept. 22, 1834, "TIMOTHY DE VORE, a native of U.S. Man of family of three persons. Man of good character." Benjamin Lindsey, Alcade (Mayor)][3]

FORWARD: "The government of Mexico, in allowing the settlement of Texas by people other than its own residents, wanted to insure that the new anglo-American settlers were of high character. It did not want the province to become a haven for the criminal element or for the non-productive. Therefore, the authorities, through the colonization laws, directed that among other requirements, the immigrants prove their good character - either by providing credentials from their homeland or having two witnesses to vouch for them. The character certificate was the result."

UNFINISHED TITLES (page 202): "The various land offices operating under the Colonization Laws of the Republic of Mexico were closed by the provincial government in the late November 1835. Titles issued after 13 November 1835 were later declared not legal. Papers relating to invalid Titles were gathered together under the name of the Commissioner as 'Unfinished Business' or 'Unfinished Titles' and bound into permanent volumes.

"It was inevitable that many Titles would have been in the process when the surprised closing of the land offices was decreed. The Mexican government had delayed in appointing Commissioners for the eastern part of Texas until 1834 and the one year that the land offices were open was not time enough for many settlers to find money for the fees and proceed with their applications....."

[note: there are four other paragraphs of explanation which are not really necessary here][1]

"Zavata's Colony Unfinished Business" - George Antonio Nixon, Commissioner, 1835, vol. 63:

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1790 - 1810

J(15). JAMES DEVORE

Information on this line has been furnished by Leah C. DeVore, dec'd, Elsie M. Frasier, Rita R. Long and Merle A. Large. Censuses, vital records, and other Tazewell Co., IL research materials make up the rest of the sources. There may also be a connection to I4. DANIEL DEVORE. [see p. 292] Descendants of both lines are comparing notes.

Some descendants say that JAMES was born in Shelby Co., KY, others say, Jefferson Co., VA. His parents have not been found, to date.

In Howard Twp., Knox Co., OH - 1830, there was also CORNELIUS DEVORE. We have put him in the H7. JACOB DEVORE FAMILY [see p. 242]. This could be in error, as he may well be a brother of JAMES DE VORE. These questions will be left for future researchers to answer.

Presented here, are the facts that we have compiled about the JAMES DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILY, including descendants of JAMES "WILLIAM" and Rose Ann (Slack) DE VORE, compiled by Merle A. (DeVore) Large before her death in 1988, shared by Elsie M. Frasier

J(21). SILAS CHARLES DEVORE

The ancestry of SILAS CHARLES DEVORE/DE VORE still eludes the descendants and researchers. With the help of the census, birth, death and marriage records and Family Bibles, Rodney W. DeVore, Faye (Jones) DeVore, James B. Knapp and Barbara (Vinson) DeVore have put together what they believe are the true facts about SILAS' line from his birth in Watertown, NY to the present day descendants. They have graciously shared their findings with us.

Question: Could SILAS a son of I(17). JOHN DEVORE? The area where SILAS was born and married is where the descendants of JOHN DEVORE have been found. [see p. 318] This question will have to answered by the descendants.

SILAS DEVORE began buying land in Crawford Co., PA on 10 Sept. 1853, when he puchased 55 acres 35 perches (sic) for $645, making the last purchase 23 July 1873 in Hayfield Twp., Crawford Co., PA.[1]

JIM furnished the material on CYRUS FARRIS DE VORE's line, which he had received from RODNEY W. DE VORE. JIM added personal knowlege of the people that he knew. Hopefully, JIM will put all his memories into a personal family history. JIM and Faye (Jones) DeVore have been working together to find the missing pieces.

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES: 1810 - 1830

K(34). JACOB GEORGE DEVORE/de VORE

This family has been put together from various sources. "The Studebaker Family National Association" of Tipp City, OH has given permission to use the DEVORE/deVORE information from their publication. Microfilm in the Family Section at Salt Lake City, UT; letters from various descendants; and Portrait and Biographical Record of Jasper, Marshall, and Grundy Counties, IA have been used, plus the censuses of PA and IL.

To date no parents have been found nor any siblings for JACOB GEORGE DEVORE. B. Mann

"The Studebaker Family" used de VORE throughout their presentation of this family.

K(58). WILLIAM DEVORE

This family was compiled and presented to the descendants by ALMA (DE VORE) HECTOR and DOROTHA (KAGY) SCHWEITZER .

There may be some connection with K(15)A. DANIEL DEVORE and K(33)A. JACOB DEVORE. Josiah Poulton, who married the widow of DANIEL DEVORE, was involved in all the estates.[1]

Fanny (Alford) DeVore died first. WILLIAM DE VORE made all the arrangements for the rearing of their children before he died.[1]

"In the early half of the 19th Century, there lived in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, a French family by the name of DeVore, who had arrived with the first settlers of that section. Among their children born after their location in Tuscarawas County, was a son named William, who after reaching maturity was married to Fanny Alford, a native of the adjoining County of Carroll.

"This couple lived but a few years after their marriage and at their death left four helpless children, the youngest of which was six months old.

"GEORGE W. and ELIZABETH were raised by the Charles Robinsons; MARY ANN was with James and Nancy (__) McKean; and JAMES was taken by a family named Perviance/Purvince of Steubenville, OH, who later moved west. JAMES AND GEORGE W. were in the Civil War."[2]

The information about this family was sent by Dennis L. Edwards of Edmonton, KY, with additional material sent by Julia (Whitlow) DeVore of Chenoa, IL.

Dennis Edwards researched and published a souvenir booklet of their heritage in 1984 for the descendants, when they held a reunion. Julia De Vore sent a copy which has pictures and addresses.

THOMAS JEFFERSON "JEFF" DE VORE has been found in the household of MARY DEVORE, along with two other children, NANCY and WILLIAM, in the 1850 Hart Co., KY census. His birthdate does not fit in the census of 1840 (which is only numbers, no names):

1840 Hart Co., KY census:
1m 0-5; 1m 15-20;
1f 0-5; 1f 20-30 (MARY); 1f 70-80 (her mother, NANCY (__) DEVORE. [See p. 191 G(14)12. MARY DE VORE, b. ca 1802, ae 48-1850]

MARY could be the mother of these children; she could be their aunt; or she may have adopted them.

Only with time and further research, will the answers to many questions be found, if at all. With no proof that the line of THOMAS JEFFERSON "JEFF" DE VORE belongs to the G(14). PHILIP DEVORE line, we are presenting JEFF's line here.

"ORPHAN" DEVORE/DE VORE WOMEN

This section contains names and information about "ORPHAN" DEVORE/DE VORE WOMEN, whose ancestry has yet to be proven. These women may be natural daughters, widows or divorcees.

We begin this section with LEANOR "LANAH" SARAH DEVORE, who may be the sister of H4. DANIEL DEVORE [to be proven, but everything seems to true] and REBECCA DEVORE who has been proven to be the sister of G(13). NICHOLAS DEVORE and G(10). JEREMIAH DEVOR(E) by the deposition of REBECCA's granddaughter, PHOEBE (WASHBURN) GRANT, given to Lyman C. Draper in 1863. [The names of their parents still are unknown.]

LEANOR "LANAH" SARAH DEVORE

Called "LEANOR" in her husband's will, but called "LANAH" by her descendants, she could have been named HELENA, MAGDALANA or ELEANOR/ELANOR, since those names became "Lana"or "Lena" depending on the family.

A list of brothers and sisters have been given the compiler by descendants. See the list and our explanation on p. 206. H2. BENJAMIN DEVORE [p. 200] could also be part of this family.

REBECCA DEVORE

REBECCA (DEVORE) WASHBURN's granddaughter, PHOEBE (WASHBURN GRANT gave a deposition to Lyman Draper, in 1863, confirming that REBECCA was a sister of G(10). JEREMIAH DEVOR(E) and G(13). NICHOLAS DEVORE. Both JEREMIAH and REBECCA DEVORE were born in Sussex Co., NJ. NICHOLAS DEVORE, according to family tales, was born in France or Germany. However, we know that the parents brought NICHOLAS to America ca 1732, disproving the story that NICHOLAS came later by himself.

REBECCA's descendants believe that her middle name was Decker, and her mother was Sarah (Decker) Devore.[3]

Jeremiah Washburn, according to Brown Co., OH Histories,[1] was born in England. [This has not been proven.] His mother m. George McCoy after his father died.

On Apr. 1785, Jeremiah Washburn is at Kenton's Station on Lawrence Creek, KY and he is on the 1787 Bourbon Co., KY Tax List.[1]

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES

INDEX

This INDEX contains the first and middle name [or initial]; nickname; name called; alias [aka]; and variations. The women will also have their maiden-name [if known] and their married name [if known].

The variations of spelling of last names should be checked, also. HOWEVER, the DEVORE section contains only DEVORE, no matter how the name is written, i.e.: Devore; DeVore or de Vore, since this is a personal choice of the man or family.

DEVORE/DE VORE FAMILIES

GEOGRAPHIC INDEX

This Geographic Index is intended to be a research tool, because there were and are so many DEVORES/DE VORES. It is felt that it would be helpful if the known area in which a certain family or person was at the time of their birth, marriage, death or when the censuses were taken, that a clue or clues might be found which could lead to a connection with another "family" or "line". Sometimes only the Country, State, County, or City are given. Townships have not been listed.
